FLYIN' HIGH

The Bluegrass Reining Stakes, highlighted by the Wimpys Little Step and the Gordyville Breeders Derbies, is an early-spring tradition. Held March 14-16 in Gifford, Illinois, the event also featured a full slate of National Reining Horse Association approved classes.

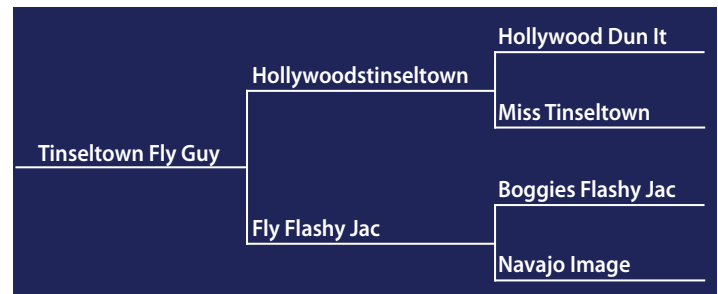

The Gordyville Breeders Derby is only open to offspring of stallions who donated a breeding sold to mare owners via an online auction. The proceeds from the sale of the breedings – less auction expenses – go into the purse as added money.

Florida and Tinseltown Fly Guy Win Wimpys Little Step and Gordyville Breeders Derbies

Shawn Florida piloted the 4-year-old stallion Tinseltown Fly Guy to a 229 to win both the Gordyville Breeders Derby and the Wimpys Little Step Derby. That meant that the National Reining Horse Association's only $5 Million Dollar earned owner Fritz Leeman a $12,664 payday.

"This horse is a huge stopper, and it was a run-in pattern. He ran in and stopped. He really showed and was so focused," Florida, of Springfield, Ohio, said. "I actually only had him a few weeks before the show. He had been away being collected for breeding, and when he came back he was good as gold. From a horseman's standpoint that's almost more important to me than the way he showed. His brain never changed and I was so proud of him."

Tinseltown Fly Guy is by Hollywoodstinseltown, out of a mare named Fly Flashy Jac. Florida has had big-arena success on Fly Flashy Jac's offspring – he won the 2006 National Reining Breeders Classic on her son Einsteins Revolution! "Einsteins Revolution was a great horse! There are similarities between him and this one – quite a few, actually," he said with a smile.

It was Einsteins Revolution's former owner, Ruben Vandorp, who sent Tinseltown Fly Guy to Florida. "Ruben sent him to me right before last year's NRHA Futurity, where we were Reserve," he said.

For Florida, Tinseltown Fly Guy's top side is equally impressive. "I love Hollywoodstinseltown. I tell his owner David Silva all the time that I think that's a stallion to be reckoned with. In my opinion he is the best one. He's got great broodmares around him, he has a great management team, and he has great breeding," he said.

Owner Fritz Leeman has been one of the leading pleasure horse owners for years and years, but is relatively new to the sport of reining. "Fritz called me a few years ago and wanted to get started in reining. He actually bought this stallion the day before we won the Reserve Championship at the Futurity. Fritz's granddaughter, Katsy Leeman, has also gotten heavily involved in reining. She's going to college now but is really enjoying it,” Flarida explained.

Next stop for Flarida and Tinseltown Fly Guy is the NRBC, where they will compete in the preliminary round on April 16.

There was a three-way tie for the Intermediate Open Championship and Open Level 4 Reserve Championship between Brian Bell on Cowboy Dakota Whiz, and Memorable Revolution, and Peter DeFreitas on One Mighty Aphrodite. Each scored a 226.5, and took home $11,066.

Cowboy Dakota Whiz, by Topsail Whiz and out of Moms Little Prize, is owned by MG Reiners, while Memorable Revolution, by Einsteins Revolution and out of Coronas Affair, is owned by the partnership of Wagner & Vandorp. One Mighty Aphrodite, owned by Double Run Farm, is by Conquistador Whiz and out of One Cuttin Chic.

With a score of 221, Gabriel Diano finished at the top of Wimpys Little Step Derby Limited Open, and shared that division title with Trevor Dare in the Gordyville Breeders Derby. Diano rode The Chex Come Easy, by Easy Otie Whiz and out of Chexanicki, to win $2,541. Dare and Michelle Cannon’s Von Step At A Time, by Wimpys Little Step and out of Von Freckles, pocketed $1,058.

It took a 220.5 to take home the Wimpys Little Step Derby Level 1 Open title, and Alexandre Ramos and Colonel G delivered. The win garnered owner Bill Bradley a check for $477. Colonel G is by Smoking Bueno Dell and out of Lady Kali Jac.

In the Gordyville Breeders Derby, Matt Fraley and The Whizard Of Whoa, owned by Julia Henderson, won the top spot of the Level 1 Open with a 219, collecting $498. Fraley and The Whizard Of Whoa, by Topsail Whiz and out of Dun Spin, also competed in the Wimpys Little Step Derby, where they won $328 for reserve in the Level 1 Open.

Pete Kyle and Brent Loseke tied for the Open Prime Time Championship in both Derbies with scores of 220.5, each collecting $989. Kyle rode Gunner Git Ya Done, by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Gotta Git Ya Done, owned by E Bar Z Stables, while Loseke piloted his horse CC Chica Whiz, by Topsail Whiz and out of Hot Little Step.

Ron Thompson and Taris Dreamer Take Non Pro Gordyville Breeders and Wimpys Little Step Derby Championships

Ron Thompson, of Whitesboro, Texas, traveled to Gifford, Illinois to compete in the Derbies. It was a last-chance tune-up before returning to the NRBC, where Thompson and his horse, Taris Dreamer, were the 2013 Non Pro Champions.

“He was more than good, but he usually is. I actually showed him in a schooling class a couple days before the Derby to see what was there,” he said. “He was pretty much perfect. I mean, I found a couple things that I needed to work on, but he marked a 220 and won that schooling class. He’s just the kind of horse that you can go show him and he’s the same every time. He will go as fast or slow as you want him to go. He stopped really good up there – probably the best he has in his whole life.”

The smaller pen was a good fit for the short-statured Taris Dreamer. “It’s definitely the smallest pen we show in all year. He’s a little bitty horse and he looks great in a big pen or a small pen, but that one really suits him,” said Thompson. In the end, the pair earned the Non Pro Level 4 and Non Pro Prime Time titles in both derbies, good for $11,867.

Thompson is known for having a good eye when it comes to top reining horses – he’s bought and sold some of the best in the industry – but Taris Dreamer, by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Taris San Cutter, gave him pause. “I usually can look at a horse and I immediately know if I like them or if I don’t, but I had to go back and look at him three times,” he said. Luckily, some wise words from an old friend helped make his decision. “I told John Hoyt about him and said that I thought he was about perfect except for his size. He told me there’s no such thing as a horse too small, and if I liked him I should just go buy him. That’s probably the best advice anyone has ever given to me.”

Thompson credits trainer Matt Armenta, also of Whitesboro, for a lot of his success. “Matt coaches me, and he’s great. We are good friends, and we have as much fun as anyone at the horse show, but we still get our jobs done.” He paused, adding, “Matt is doing really well for himself. He’s got a barn full of great horses to ride and he works harder than anybody I know.”

Indy Roper and Tinkers Redneck, by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Tinker Nic, finished as reserve Champions in both Derbies, collecting $7,082. Tinkers Redneck is owned by Samantha Roper.

Topping the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro of the Wimpys Little Step Derby was Julia Henderson and her horse Spooks Question with a 218. The win added $4,640 to Spooks Question’s (Smart Spook x Janie Be Nimble) lifetime earnings.

Taking the Intermediate Non Pro Championship of the Gordyville Breeders Derby was Greg Gottschalk on Dun

Morey Fisk wins European Futurity on Arc Walla Dun Did It

After seven days of showing March 30 - April 5, the National Reining Horse Association European Futurity ended in the Ostbayernhalle in Kreuth with the Open Futurity finals. Nearly 4,000 reining fans made their way to Kreuth to see the international stars of reining. The week ended with high quality competition and a historic crowning of the 2014 champion.

"I am very impressed by this event," said Gary Carpenter, the new NRHA Commissioner. "The organization has been wonderful, the ground, the facility, the quality of the horses, and even the weather."

The star of the night was Canadian Morey Fisk who guided Arc Walla Dun Did It (Walla Walla Whiz x Dainty Dun it x Hollywood Dun It), owned by Inge Magnusson of Sweden, to a score of 223.5. The score gave them the win, and Fisk's third consecutive title. He is now the winningest open rider in the event's history.

He said, "Winning this title three years in a row is incredible and I still can't believe it even though I knew I had a really good horse and that it could be done. Arc Walla Dun Did It was trained by Andrea Fappani and shown by him at the NRHA Futurity so I knew that he was pretty solid, even though I haven't had much time to fit him to my program since he got to France. He did really well in the go-round after which I felt there were a couple of things I needed to work on before the finals. I rode him this morning, he felt really good and tonight he was awesome.” He added, “I’d like to thank all my team and of course the owner, Inge Magnusson, for having given me this opportunity.”

Arc Walla Dun Did It won the 2013 All American Quarter Horse Congress Reining Futurity and placed seventh at the 2013 NRHA Futurity Open with Andrea Fappani. Before the European Futurity, he had $54,410 in NRHA Lifetime Earnings. The chestnut stallion was bred and North American nominated by Arcese Quarter Horses. Magnusson added the European option to make the horse eligible for the NRHA European Futurity. The championship paid $48,090, with 5% going to the nominator. In addition, they won a Bob’s Custom Saddle, a Montana Silversmiths buckle, an NRHA trophy and a cooler from XCS Ranch.

Just a half point behind was Duane Latimer on Gotta Nifty Gun (Dun It Gotta Gun x Custom Nifty Nic x Custom Crome) owned by Luga Quarter Horses of Italy. The stallion was bred and nominated for North America by Carl Lambert and nominated for Europe by Luga Quarter Horses.

Giovanni Lugara, owner of Gotta Nifty Gun, said, “I really want to thank Duane for coming over and showing this horse for us. He did a really good job and I can’t wait to show this horse myself.”

Duane Latimer noted, “This is truly a talented horse, I’m really happy to have had the opportunity to come over to show him here and would like to thank Luga Quarter Horses for this opportunity.”

Level 3 Open Co-Champions

Scoring a 215 for the co-championship in the L3 open division was Sylvia Rzepka (AUT) riding Start A Revolution (Einsteins Revolution x Plenty Of Rest x Custom Crome) and Guy Zemah (ISR) aboard Walla

Whiz Keen (Walla Walla Whiz x Keen Little Katie x Tejons Little Johnny). In a mutual decision to make the best interest of their horses the priority, the riders and owners decided against a run-off and shared the championship title. They each earned $15,037, including the nominator incentive.

Start A Revolution ($14,629 NRHA LTE), an NRHA / Markel Insurance Futurity Sales graduate, is owned by Sabine Lisee & Chuck Klipfel. The stallion was nominated by Wagman Ranch. Walla Whiz Keen was bred by his owner and nominator, Olga Hoffmann. This is the bay gelding's first major win.

Level 1 and 2 Open Champions - Schnell and Dunits Finest Stop

From draw 14 in section one of the finals, Susanne Schnell (GER) and Dunits Finest Stop (Footworks Finest x Smart Katy Rio x Ill Be Smart) marked a 212 to win the L1 and L2 open divisions. The stallion was bred and nominated by Christine Bayer and owned by Wolfgang Neuendorff. In all, they earned $14,372 with $718 going to the nominator.

Tying for the reserve championship in the L2 open division with scores of 211.5 was Julia Schumacher (GER) riding Coeurs Little Tyke and Giovanni Masi De Vargas (ITA) with Saturday Whiz.

Coeurs Little Tyke (Coeur D Wright Stuff x Sweet Remy Chexs x Little Remedy Chexs) is owned and was nominated by Hans-Georg Holzwarth. They also won the reserve championship in the L1 open division.

Saturday Whiz (Saturdaynight Custom x Anjolena Whiz x Topsail Whiz) is owned by ASD Little Ranch. She was nominated by Ambrosini Quarter Horses.

KL Performance Horses Non Pro Futurity

The KL Performance Horses Non Pro Futurity finals thrilled the crowd in Kreuth as well when Claudio Risso and RS Knockout Olena (Spat Olena x Boggie Bar Linda x Boggie Mania), an American Quarter Horse gelding bred and nominated by Risso, scored a 217.5 to take home both the L4 Non Pro Futurity Championship and a pay check of $11,975 and nominators incentive check worth $630.

"I really wanted to win this title again and I was very lucky to be able to do so with a horse born and bred at home," said the 60-year-old past-NRHA Non Pro World Champion. "I had never tried to ride him without a bridle, but I did in the awards presentation and he just proved what a great horse he is and, most of all, how amazing his stops are!"

Susy Baeck and Hollywood Diva BB, a mare by Wimpys Little Step and out of Hollywood Balloues (by Hollywood Dun It), bred and nominated by Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck, scored a 215.5 for the L4 reserve championship. Susy won $7,672, of which $383 was for being the nominator.

Kelly Deelen and KN Magic Dunit Win Levels 1-3

Dutch rider Kelly Deelen and KN Magic Dunit (ARC Magic Enterprise x Miss Dunit Tari x Okie Dun It Too), a mare bred and nominated by Andrea Castrucci of Italy, won the KL Performance Horses Non Pro L1, L2 and L3 European Futurity championships after making it back to the finals from the consolation. The talented horse-rider combination was the last to enter the pen at the end of the first section of the non pro finals and closed their run with a score of 215.5, score which remained unbeaten in the three levels until the very end. In all KN Magic Dunit won $10,136.03 with 5% going to her nominator.

Claiming the reserve championship in the L3 is Edoardo Bernardelli of Italy. Riding the mare bred and nominated by him, Im Taris Slide (OT Taris Melody x Im Gunna Slide x Slide Me To The Bar), Bernardelli closed his run with a 212.5.

The reserve championship in the L1 and L2 with a score of 211.5 went to Benjamin Sueselbeck of Germany and his Ruf Prediction, a stallion by Sailin Ruf and out of Primrose Prediction (by Tommys Prediction), nominated by Benjamin himself.

The Open

In a field of 39 riders, German Nina Lill made it to the winners circle once again riding GR Hug A Jewel (Solano-swarlee Boy x Hug A Freckle x Colonel Jay Bar) owned by Vanety Korbus. Draw 32 in a field of 39, Nina scored a 222, one-half point higher than NRHA Professional Cody Sapergia who was holding the highest score after posting a 221.5 - five horses before Lill - aboard Tari Whizin (Topsail Whiz x Tari Badgekin x Doc Tari), a stallion owned by Chuck Klipfel and Sabine Lisec.

Third place honors went to Eleonora Malerba's Rooster Nic (Gallo Del Cielo x Sanjos Pistolette x San Jo Lena) between the reins of Stefano Ferri who scored a 220.

NRHA Rookie

With a score of 208.5, Joanna Forzak won the NRHA Rookie ancillary class riding Sabine Wagner's Roosters Spurs (Gallo Del Cielo x Ebg Docs Spur x Doc O'Lena).

"Roosters Spurs is a 15-year-old stallion that had been shown in the past by Bernard Fonck. We purchased him in the States and have had him ever since he was a 2-year-old. He was really good for me today, his spins were good, I didn't push too hard in the circles and tried to stop him well. I will now be going to ride with the Fonck's in Italy and my horse will rest during the time I will be away."

Second place, with a score of 204, went to Georg Holzwarth riding Foxy Lil Surprise (Reminic Surprise x Foxy Lil Bear x Okies Teddy Bear).

Wimpys Little Step Becomes NRHA $6 Million Sire

In ten months after achieving the five million dollar mark, Wimpys Little Step has become the National Reining Horse Association's (NRHA) newest Six Million Dollar Sire. This makes him the fourth horse to earn such a prestigious title and puts him in the ranks alongside Smart Chic Olena, Topsail Whiz, and Hollywood Dun It.

The 2011 NRHA Hall of Fame Inductee is by Two Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Fame Inductee Nu Chex To Cash and out of Leolita Step by Forty Seven. Wimpys Little Step is owned by NRHA Corporate Partner Xtra Quarter Horses, LLC in Purcell, Okla. where he currently stands. With limited showing in 2002, ridden by NRHA's only Five Million Dollar Rider Shawn Florida, Wimpys Little Step racked up an impressive show record with NRHA Lifetime Earnings of over $185,000.

RHSF Youth Scholarships Due SOON!

By Chris Dennis – Members of the National Reining Horse Youth Association (NRHyA) are valued assets to the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) and to the future of the horse industry. The Reining Horse Sports Foundation (RHSF) is committed to providing leadership and scholarship opportunities for these valued youth members. Each year, the RHSF awards more than $44,000 in scholarships to NRHyA members. At this time, the RHSF is excited to offer $10,500 in academic and need-based scholarships for seven youth members.

“The youth program is vital to our sport; the youth are our future. Being able to recognize our youth members for their involvement in the sport of Reining as well as award them for all their hard work in school, is an honor,” said Frank Costantini, president of the Reining Horse Sports Foundation.

Scholarship recipients will be determined based on academic achievement, future goals, involvement in the NRHyA and NRHA, and financial need. Applicants must be a senior in high school planning to pursue an undergraduate degree from a two or four year institution or a trade and technical school and current NRHA member for at least two years.

Applications are now being accepted for the RHSF scholarships. All applications must be postmarked by May 15, 2014. Previous recipients of the RHSF scholarships are eligible to reapply for scholarships until they are 25 years old. The scholarship application may be downloaded at nrhya.com.

For more information about RHSF scholarships, go to rhsf.com or nrhya.com. You may also contact Chris Dennis at cdennis@nrha.com or at (405) 946-7400.

14 NRHA Events Approved for APHA World Show Qualification

If you've got a Paint reining horse, the American Paint Horse Association (APHA) is making it easier than ever to get qualified for the APHA World Championship Show.

For the 2014 and 2015 APHA World Shows – which take place annually in November in Fort Worth, Texas, and are home to Open and Amateur world championship classes, along with many other added-money events – APHA has approved 14 National Reining Horse Association-approved shows that will count toward APHA World Show qualification requirements.

Each of the following 14 shows counts for a minimum of one show and two judges – to qualify for the APHA World Show, a Paint Horse must have participated in at least four shows and eight judges. Click here to read full qualification requirements for the APHA World Show; no qualification is required to participate in the AjPHA Youth World Championship Show, which takes place annually in June and July.

Unless otherwise noted, these shows are approved only for APHA World Show qualification, not APHA points. Those marked as APHA Special Events will offer APHA-approved classes in which horses are eligible to earn APHA points as well. APHA hopes to announce similar partnerships with National Cutting Horse Association and National Reined Cow Horse Association events soon. For more information, visit apha.com.
