NRHA EUROPEAN AFFILIATE CHAMPIONSHIPS!

Rookie Level 1

Sponsored by SER Sud Est Restauration

The 19 finalists in the Rookie Level 1 European Affiliate Championship finals had the crowd in the stands cheering in Le Pin! It wasn't until the very last contestant rode in the pen that the champions were determined. With a 213, Kim Windey of Belgium, riding Whowhizthispeppy Chic, took the lead and the highest step on the podium.

"I am really excited and happy because this is my first major show!" said a smiling Kim following the awards presentation. "Being the last to go in, I was really, really nervous!"

Kim has been riding under the guidance of NRHA professional Cira Back for the past two years. "I bought my mare when she was a baby because I just fell in love with her. I never thought we would get this far, also because I come from dressage riding. I really look forward to going on. My mare is now in foal to Colonels Shining Gun, so next year she will be out of the show pen, but Cira told me that we would definitely find a solution!"

Tying for the Co-Reserve Championship were Jennifer M Luijt and Evely Boots. Both riders are from The Netherlands and both scored a 212.5. Jennifer rode Shining W Diamond (Like A Diamond x Tissy Spark) and Evely rode Lil Scolor Escapes BB (Don Quixote Escapes x Little Painted Gump B).

Youth 14-18

Sponsored by DP Western

With an amazing score of 217, Michelle Maibaum of Germay rode her two horses to the highest steps of the podium. The young rider first lead the standings with Gunners Jem then repeated her score with her second horse, Sailcommander. "I am so excited and I cannot believe that I achieved this amazing result," she said. "I would really like to thank my trainer, Alex Ripper, who is not here for this show, and Ann Poels Fonck who helped me so much during this championship. A big thanks to my parents for their super support."

Third place went to Famke Algera riding Amarillas Boomerchex (Okie Paul Quixote x Oh To Be Blonde x Boomer-nic) thanks to the 214.5 posted by the talented youth from The Netherlands.

Youth 13 & Under

Jinke Stevens of Belgium and Don John Escapes BB captured the NRHA Youth 13 & Under Championship. The 14-year-old rider purchased her horse from breeder, Eifel Gold Ranch, 16 months ago and is under the guidance of trainers Ernst Klassen and Tiara Van Dongen. “I was really hoping to earn this title and am so happy!” said Jinke who also shows in dressage and show jumping. Last year she also qualified for the pony show jumping national team!

The reserve championship, with a 209.5, went to Nimroid Vannientvelt of Belgium and Toosexy For Ricochet. Nimroid also tied for third place riding Slide N Spook with Matteo Cappello of Italy riding RS Knockout Olena. The two scored a 208.

Intermediate Non Pro

Sponsored by King's Valley Quarter Horses

The Intermediate Non Pro European Affiliate Championship ignited the crowd in the stands and saw last year's Limited Non Pro EA Champions stand on the highest step of the podium again! Nuith Linthorst and Just Miss Enterprise ran a flawless NRHA pattern number eight and was rewarded by the judges with a score of 218.5.

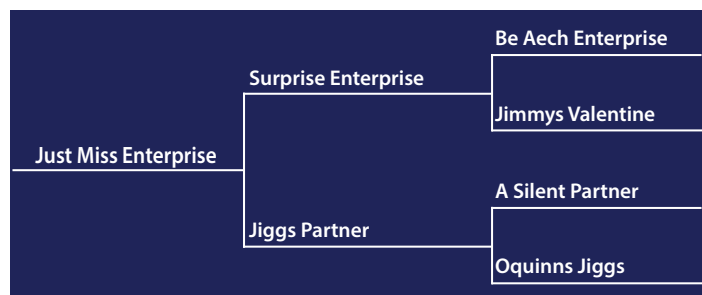

“A lot happened since the championship last year and my mare just got better, especially after we worked more on the spins,” said the young rider from Holland who, along with her mount, also holds the 2013 NRHA European Derby Non Pro Level 1 Championship. “This year we also did an embryo transfer with her and I think that after next year she will probably take some time off being a ‘mama.’”

Nuith and her mare also qualified for the NRHA EAC Non Pro finals.

The reserve championship in this class was shared by Dries Verschueren and BA Superjac, already winners of the NRHA Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 in Le Pin, and to Kimberly Wegner and Smart Reminic Twist, winners of the NRHA Intermediate Non Pro.

The Belgian rider, Verschueren, and his stallion by Mcjac Flash and out of High Brows Chick and German Wegner, riding her gelding by Dun It With A Twist and out of Smart Reminic Twist, both scored a 215.5.

The champions won a Bob's Custom Saddle a Lawson Trophy, a Montana Silversmiths custom buckle and a pair of Classic Equine protective boots. The reserve champions took home a Morrision trophy, a pair of Montana Silversmiths custom spurs and Classic Equine bell boots. Third place prizes included a pair of NRHA custom stirrups and an NRHA plaque.

Intermediate Open Sponsored by Guidolin Wafer Fioc

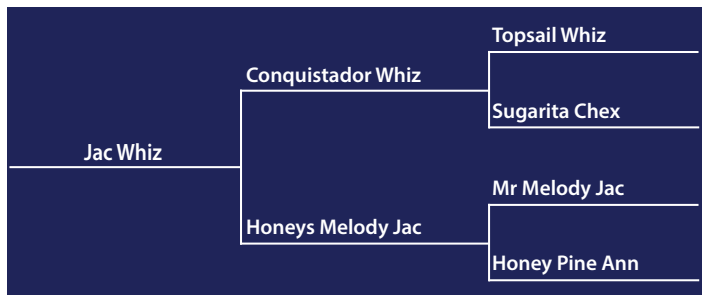

Fabien Boiron of France rode Jac Whiz to the Intermediate Open EA Championship. Aboard the gelding for owner Philippe Castel, Fabien had already conquered the NRHA Intermediate Open class the day before as well as the 2014 Markel French Derby Level 4 and Level 2 Open Championship. The team scored a 221 today for the win.

“My horse was really relaxed today and I asked him just a little more than I did yesterday,” said the French rider. “Today in the warm up pen I just trotted him and loped him a little and in the arena I could feel that he still had a lot of energy. I just asked a little more in the spins and for the rest of the pattern he was with me all the way without ever anticipating any maneuver. I am really happy with this title and with the way he went and now I really look forward to showing him at the NRHA European Derby.”

Reserve honors in this European Affiliate Championship class – with a score of 218.5 – went to Matyas Gobert of Belgium riding Koen Brutsaert’s Guns Apocalypse Shok (One Gun x Rs Valentine Jac x Mejac Flash).

On the third step of the podium was another French rider: Frank Perret scored a 217 riding Philippe Thuillez’ Ghoster Buster Chex (Bueno Chexinic x Ghost Buster Baby) to a 217.

Snaffle Bit Non Pro

For Piet Mestdagh of Belgium and his 4-year-old mare Sheza Spook Lil Step, winning the Snaffle-Bit Futurity, open to 3-, 4- and 5-year-old horses, was twice as sweet. “We bred this mare ourselves and winning with a ‘home-made’ product is always special,” he said. “I showed her at the French Futurity last year, where I won the Non Pro division. Quentin (Galliere), my trainer, was reserve champion open at the same show.”

Following their win, Piet and Quentin decided that she would take a well deserved rest – a rest which lasted until two weeks ago when the talented horse was back in training. “Showing her here was not in the plans but Quentin insisted that I should show her, especially since her spins are now a lot better that they were last year. He was right to convince me!”

Plans for this horse now include the 4-year-old Beglian, German and French futurities.

Plans for Piet at the European Affiliate Championship include showing his WEG qualified Spat Man O War and BH Most Wanted.

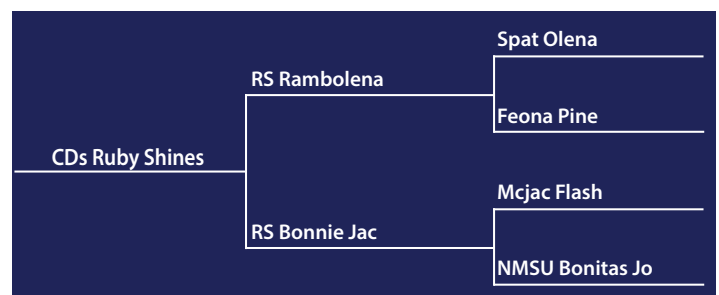

Snaffle Bit Open

Taking home the win in the Snaffle Bit Open Futurity, open to 3-year-old horses, was Sigfried Weber riding CDs Ruby Shines for owner Laurent Deniel. The pair scored a 212.

“I am really happy with the way she showed today,” said Sigfried who trained the mare himself. “We came here because we wanted to see how she would be without putting any pressure on her. We couldn’t be any happier, she just cruised through the pattern and she acted exactly how I expected. She has always been quiet and easy to train, and once again proved how good she is today.”

The owner and breeder of this horse couldn’t be any happier. “This is an incredible horse. She’s good minded, quiet,

Open Sponsored by Cowboy's Magazine

Bernard Fonck and Big Sky Whizard repeated their winning score the day after winning the $10,000-added NRHA Open - sponsored by Guerriero Stables - held in Le Pin. This time their win placed them on the highest step of the podium of the 2014 NRHA Open European Championship!

Aboard last year's NRHA European Affiliate Open Champion and past NRHA Open World Champion, Sail On Top Whizard (Whizard Jac x Miss N Sis), owned by Danny and Mireille Cerato of Belgium, Bernard also took home the NRHA EA Open Reserve Championship with a score of 222. The stallion by Whizard Jac and out of Miss N Sis has earned over $262,400 in NRHA competition.

On the third step of the podium, with a score of 221.5, was past NRHA Open World Champion, Ann Fonck, riding Dance Little Spook (Smart Spook x Sailors Dance x Topsail Cody) owned by Quarter Dream of Italy.

Limited Open Sponsored by Agricow

In a field of 20 qualified European riders, once again Fabien Boiron of France topped the competition, this time taking home the NRHA European Affiliate Limited Open Championship.

“This horse is truly special and did really well for me from day one here. He's a little ‘pony’ with a big heart and big talent,” said Fabien about Jac Whiz, a bay gelding by Conquistador Whiz and out of Honeys Melody Jac (by Mr Melody Jac), owned by Philip Castel and bred by Maqueline Reining Horses of France. “Closing the show with this European title is wonderful. Now I really look forward to showing him at the NRHA European Derby in September.”

Matyas Gobert of Belgium, aboard Soulas A Cinch (Soula Jule Star x Tinas New CD), owned by Koen Brutsaert, took the reserve championship with a score of 214.5. “I'm so happy with this reserve championship, especially considering that this 7-year-old gelding is a youth horse!” said Gobert, trainer for Koen Brutsaert.

Third place honors, a half a point behind Gobert, went to Anne Sophie Guerriero of France riding Chicken Sandwich (Ricochet Rooster x Ms Sanditch Whiz) for owner by Eric Defouilhoux.

Non Pro Sponsored by Le Petit Far West

Draw nine in a field of 14 qualified riders, last year's Limited Non Pro EA Champions and this year's Intermediate Non Pro EA champions had a score to beat: the 218.5 posted by past NRHA Non Pro World Champion, Manuel Bonzano riding Nic Ricochet.

Nuith Linthorst of The Netherlands and her Just Miss Enterprise (Surprise Enterprise x Jiggs Partner), ran a powerful NRHA pattern number one and once they closed with their last deep stop, the score was a 221. The pair conquered the NRHA Non Pro European Affiliate Championship as well as the public! “This is just amazing, I never expected to be able to win this title, especially considering the level of competition and the competitors I had to ride against,” said Nuith. “I can only thank my mare for once again being so powerful and of course all my family and my friends!”

Bonzano of Italy and his 6-year-old gelding by Ricochet Rooster and out of Minnie Nic shared the reserve championship with the 2014 NRHA European Affiliate Limited Non Pro champions, Koen Brutsaert of Belgium and CJ Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Dream Olena Chic x Magnum Chic Dream), who also posted a 218.5 following Linthorst's run.

Limited Non Pro Sponsored by Blue Fox Boy

Koen Brutsaert of Belgium and CJ Whiz, with a score of 217.5, took home the Limited Non Pro European Affiliate Championship. Koen has been showing this 5-year-old stallion who boasts over $44,600 won in NRHA competition since the end of last year, after he purchased him from the U.S.

liked this one which I bought from Nedpoint,” says Koen. “He’s really talented and I managed to qualify him for the Affiliate Championship in only three shows this year so I am very very pleased with him.” Brutsaert rides under the guidance of Matyas Gobert.

The reserve championship went to Dries Verschueren and BA Superjac with a score of 215.5. “I’ve had this horse for three years now and I really get along well with him. Once again he was really good for me,” said the Belgian rider about the stallion by Mejac Flash and out of High Brows Chick, owned by Golden Paint Ranch and bred by Bernard and Ann Fonck.

In third place with a score of 214, was Jean François Ayoul of France riding his Slide On Sal, a 9-year-old gelding by Lenas Wright On and out of Smart Sally (by Smart Chic Olena).

Rookie Professional

Sponsored by Alexandre Veron Maréchalerie

The NRHA European Affiliate Rookie Professional finals saw Tiara Von Dongen riding Eifel Gold Ranch Baeck’s, Pop Gun Cash BB taking home the championship.

The flashy palomino gelding by Nu Chex To Cash and out of Sugar Pop Gun (by Gunner) boasts over $31,000 NRHA LTE and many a European title to his name between the reins of Cira and Susy Baeck. Among these, the 2014 IRHA/NRHA Derby Non Pro Level 4 Reserve Championship with Susy in the saddle.

“I qualified ‘Cash’ with schooling runs so I am really happy with this title,” says Tiara, assistant trainer for Cira (Baeck) for the past two years. “He is a horse that you know you can do well on so long as you keep it together. Even though I’ve been training him in these past two years, I only started riding him with a goal in mind this week.”

Van Dongen won a Bob’s Custom Saddle, a Morrison Trophy, a Montana Silversmiths custom buckle and a pair of Classic Equine splint boots.

The reserve championship went to Tiffany Gal of France riding her own Frozen Dry Mile. Aboard her mount by Frozen Sailor and out of TC Diamond Sierra, Tiffany posted a 210.5 and took home a Pewter Trophy, a pair of Montana Silversmiths custom spurs and Classic Equine bell boots.

On the third step of the podium, with a 209, was Tim Van Neuten riding Hesa Tuff Jac (Hesa Tuff Chic x Enterprise Winder) for Henkjan Weernink of The Netherlands. Tim also won a pair of NRHA custom made stirrups and an NRHA plaque.

2014 SVAG CS CLASSIC & SVAG FEI EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIP REINING YOUNG & JUNIOR RIDERS

Once the SVAG FEI European Championship Junior Individual competition came to a close in the beautiful CS Ranch Arena in Givrins, Switzerland, taking the lead and the FEI Gold Medal in a field of 18 contestants was Enrico Sciulli and the flashy sorrel mare, Patree 2008, owned by Maurizio Ambrosini.

The two closed their run with a score of 216. "Today my mare went much better than yesterday in the Team competition," said a smiling Enrico who had made the finals in the NRHA European Level 1 and 2 Non Pro Derby with his mount. "She still needs to mature a little, as far as her personality is concerned, and that is why sometimes she is not as consistent as she should be in the pen."

Sciulli, 17, has been riding with Italy's team coach, Filippo Masi, since last month and has also been followed by Italian trainer, Francesco Martinotti, who he would like to extend his thanks to. "Being able to live this adventure has been great, especially here at the CS Ranch which is the perfect location for an international event. I really enjoyed the team spirit both with my team mates and with the other teams here. In the little 'fun time' we had available, we enjoyed ourselves a lot!"

Just as thrilled is the Chair of the Reining Committee of the Italian Equestrian Sports Federation, Roberto Cuoghi. "Once again the results obtained here prove that the Italian reining is going in the right direction. All the riders were just great and I would like to thank the CS Ranch for hosting this wonderful event."

The Individual Junior Podium

It took a run-off to determine who would claim the Silver medal after Gina Maria of Germany, riding Big Time Rooster and Eric Ranieri Volpe of Italy, riding Exxcaliber, both posted a 212.5. The exhilarating run-off once again resulted in a tie, after they both scored a 212. At this point, the sum of the five scores of the judges determined who would wear the Silver medal around their neck. With a total score of 354, the Italian rider was on the second step of the podium and Gina Maria on the third.

“The first time I went in the pen I was determined to do my best,” said Eric. “The second time I was a lot more relaxed because I knew that in any case I had won a medal! My horse was fantastic and always waited for me, even the second time around.”

Italian Team Coach Filippo Masi, gave credit to his athletes. “Even though the riders had so little time between the team and individual competition, they were fantastic.”

The Bronze medal went to Germany’s Gina Maria and Big Time Rooster, a 14-year-old stallion owned by Andrea Gembe. “Big Time Rooster was great for me today and always listened,” said Gina. “I’ve only been riding him for ten days and I really get along with him. I like him a lot and I am so happy we achieved this great result. He will now take a well deserved rest!”

Just off the podium, with a score of 211, was Shawn Wagner of Germany riding Hollys Electric Spark owned by Priscilla Jaquard.

The Young Riders Podium

The FEI competition in Givrins closed with the Individual Young Riders competition which counted 15 horse-rider combinations. Claiming the Gold medal once again was Giovanni Masi De Vargas and his faithful horse, Remins Remedy, a beautiful bay stallion owned by Luca Zeni. Last to enter the pen, the pair closed their run with a 218.5.

“I am so happy for this result! Remins Remedy was incredible from the beginning to the end. In the first stop I didn’t want to push him too much, mainly because I wanted to execute a pattern that just got better and better,” said

Giovanni. “He always listened to me and waited for me. He’s a super horse and and I don’t know how to thank him enough. This is our sixth consecutive medal and I am on cloud nine!”

The second step of the podium, and the Silver medal, also speaks Italian! Alessia Simoncini and Top O Spanish posted a 213 and took home second place honors. “I didn’t push my horse too much in the first set of circles, but, in the rest of the pattern he was great and gave me all he had. I really want to thank my trainer, Marco Manzi, for helping me achieve this result. Without his help this wouldn’t have been possible.”

Marina Bottoli and Whizable, owned by Sabine Lisec, conquered the Bronze medal with a score of 210.5. Team Coach, Chuck Klipfel, was quick to praise the horse-rider combination for their efforts. “This is the very first show for Marina and Whizable. Yesterday their performance didn’t go that well, but they worked hard, corrected some mistakes and today they earned this well deserved medal! I am very proud of both of them.”

Marina has only been riding this horse for the past three weeks. “We haven’t really had much time to get to know each other,” she commented. “Yesterday I wasn’t happy with our performance but today I am very happy! I think we managed to do a good job and I would like to thank the owner, Sabine Lisec, for having given me the opportunity to ride her horse in this prestigious competition.”

Missing the podium by one point was Anna Lisec, also from Austria, riding Golden Jac The Boss owned by Chuck Klipfel and Sabine Lisec.

FEI Director of Driving, Vaulting and Reining, Bettina De Rham, praised the work done at the FEI championship. “I assisted a high level of competition here in Givrins during these two days. Both the horses and the riders were well prepared. The location is beautiful and the organization was perfect. Everything was organized in detail, starting from the stalling of the horses to the awards presentations. I truly hope that in the future events such as this one will take place here.”

$30,000-added SVAG CS Classic NRHA Open Ludwig & Gwhiz Im Smart are the Open Champions! $20,000-added SVAG CS Classic Non Pro Kuentner-Mantl & Korbus are Non Pro Co-Champions!

Sixteen fantastic horses and riders left their mark in the CS Ranch show pen! The past editions of the SVAG CS Classic Open have been fundamental in the making of the NRHA Open World Champions and this year, in the winners circle, was Grisha Ludwig riding Gwhiz Im Smart for owner Antonina Geisendorf.

Grisha Ludwig, riding Gwhiz, was second to enter the arena with the 5-year-old stallion by Smart Spook and out of Whizards Baby Doll (by Whizard Jac) and the German professionals' powerful performance was paid back by the judges with a 224.5.

Following the awards presentation, an enthused Grisha said: "Gwhiz Im Smart was perfect during the whole pattern. I knew he was a good horse, but I never thought that he would be this good! I was focused on doing the best we could when we started our performance. I tried to get as many credits as I could where I knew my horse could do it – he was simply fantastic and I had a lot of fun!"

Grisha's performance was highlighted by fast and precise spins and deep sliding stops that made the dirt fly and the public holler in appreciation!

The reserve championship, with a score of 221.5, went to past NRHA Open World Champion, Ann Poels-Fonck riding Ebony Spook for owner, NRHA Million Dollar Owner, Rosanne Sternberg. Aboard the 6-year-old mare by Smart Spook and out of Ebony Whiz (by Topsail Whiz), the Belgian professional won the co-championship in this year's edition of the IRHA/NRHA Open Level 4.

"I am happy with the reserve championship even though things could have gone better," said Ann. After the second lead change 'Ebony' tripped and changed leads for a stride which resulted in a 2 point penalty. Unfortunately things went that way – it's not her fault, it's not my fault, it's just a matter of Lady Luck not being on our side!"

In third place, with a score of 220, was NRHA Million Dollar Rider and multiple NRHA Open World Champion, Bernard Fonck. The Belgian rider was seen riding Big Sky Whizard, a 7-year-old son by Topsail Whiz and out of Isle Bea Dun It (by Hollywood Dun It) owned by Color Invest A & S Deredowsky.

$5,000-added SVAG CS Classic NRHA Int. Open Guglielmo Fontana & The Genuine Rooster win!

Run concurrently with the Open, the Intermediate Open was won by yet another 'team 23' trainer - Guglielmo Fontana - the assistant trainer for Ann and Bernard Fonck at 23 Quarter Horses of Italy, owned by Manuel Bonzano.

On The Genuine Rooster (Ricochet Rooster x Genuine King Glo x Genuine Doc), Guglielmo closed his winning run with a score of 216.5. The Genuine Rooster is a 6-year-old stallion owned by 23 Quarter Horses and about him 'Gully' had to say: "Bernard (Fonck) and I decided together that this year we would try to haul for the NRHA World Championship in the Intermediate Open division. This is the fourth consecutive win that we bring home and I am thrilled. We didn't want to ask too much of my mount since next week we will be at the NRHA European Affiliate Championship in France and then we'll be moving on to show at the Garden of England. I am really happy we won again!"

Three points behind the winners, the reserve championship went to Annika Friesecke and RS Mcjac Hglo (Mcjac Flash x Harlan Glo x Duncans Candy Man). The 14-year-old gelding owned by Ursula Niklaus has left his mark at the CS Classic this year with Annika in the saddle by winning the Jackpot Open.

Third place for Daniel Schmutz riding his BH Cielo Dry (Cielo Dry x Its A Broadway Girl x Broadway BH), an 8-year-old stallion. The pair won the $500-added SVAG CS Classic Limited Open championship in this year's edition of the CS Classic.

$20,000-added SVAG CS Classis NRHA Non Pro Tina Kuenstner-Mantl & Cashn Rooster Vanety Korbus & GR Hug A Jewel

Twenty-seven horse-rider combinations, ready to battle for the title of SVAG CS Classis NRHA Non Pro Champions, performed to the highest levels.

Two riders, with a score of 218.5, tied for the co-championship: Tina Kuenstner-Mantl riding Cashn Rooster (Gallo Del Cielo x Booming Cash x Boomernic), owned by Jac Point Horses, and Vanety Korbus, riding GR Hug A Jewel (Solanoswarlee Boy x Hug A freckle x Colonel Jay Bar).

Tina Kuenstner-Mantl & Cashn Rooster

Vanety Korbus & GR Hug A Jewel

Tina Kuenstner-Mantl tells us after the awards ceremony: "I bought Cash N Rooster as a 3-year-old from Todd Crawford. He is 6-years-old now and is a really good horse. Today I did not show him to the best of his ability because we do not know each other well yet."

In fact, the owner of Jac Point Quarter Horses and her mount have only taken part in the 2013 IRHA-NRHA Derby together. "The purpose of this show was to decide which of my three horses I would bring to the World Equestrian Games. I'm happy with how they all performed and it will be a difficult choice."

Tina's coach, Cody Sapergia, was pleased with Tina's win and performance. "Considering the fact that Tina and Cashn Rooster don't know each other well, I think they will become a great combination in the future."

Vanity Korbus and GR Hug A Jewel slid to the highest step of the podium along with Kuenstner-Mantl. "Today my mare was perfect, I enjoyed the competition a lot and this is the most beautiful thing in addition to the victory! The weather unfortunately was not on our side, but to be here at CS Classic is fantastic. The arena is perfect and we loved showing here. Along with Tina we decided to share the title as GR Hug A Jewel had already won the CRI with Nina Lill, and we thought it was enough for her."

Claiming third place honors were Manuel Bonzano and High Point Reiner (Sailin Ruf x Scarlet High Listo x Listo Lena), owned 23 Quarter Horses, with a score of 217.

$3,000-added SVAG CS Classic NRHA Intermediate Non Pro Adrienne Speidel & Chexylution

Establishing themselves in first place in the SVAG CS Classic Intermediate Non Pro class was the Swiss rider Adrienne Speidel and her Chexylution (Einsteins Revolution x Chexymatic x Bueno Chexinic). With a score of 216 the pair took the lead in a field of 29 competitors today.

"I bought this horse from Grischa Ludwig three years ago and he rode him the two following years. We then brought him home and my mom started to ride him, but he felt like a Ferrari and was a bit 'too difficult to drive!' So she passed the reins went on to me! Here at the CS Ranch he always behaved well, listened and waited on me all the time. Now we have a schooling show coming up in Mooslargue, France, and after that the World Equestrian Games in Normandy."

In second place, with a score of 214.5, were the reserve champions of the $200-added SVAG CS Classic NRHA Limited Non Pro: Jennifer L. Schleiniger and Masked Gunman (Gunner x Starmax RM x Grays Starlight).

Youth CS Trophy 13& Under - Nanina Staub & Golden Jac N Win 14 & Up - Gina Maria & Captain Igloo

The "reiners of the future" opened the day at the CS Classic facility. In the $100-added Youth 13 & Under CS Trophy, with a score of 205, young rider Nanina Staub took the lead riding Golden Jac N Win (Jac O Rima x Peppys Dry Creek x Dry Doc), an 8-year-old palomino owned by Sabine Staub.

"I'm ten years old and I train at the Horse Academy in Mooslargue. At home we do a great job of preparation and training. My horse here at the CS Ranch was very good and he followed me in my every request, he was relaxed and gave me all he had. Now we have the upcoming NRHA show which will be held in Mooslargue, on July 18-20, where I hope to do just as well. I'm so happy!"

Nanina Staub & Golden Jac N Win

In second place in the Youth 13 & Under is Flurin Staub and Spooks Fancy Lady (Smart Spook x Fancy Lady Hickory x Docs Hickory).

In the $100-added Youth 14-18 CS Trophy, Gina Maria conquered the whole podium! The championship went to Captain Igloo (Frozen Sailor x Sandy Whiz x Topsail Whiz), owned by Sky Chanay Management, with a score of 210.

Gina Maria & Captain Igloo

"I only rode this horse three times this week so I'm definitely very happy with our result. Our next goal will be the NRHA European Derby in Manerbio. I would like to thank all the people who helped me during this show!"

On the second step of the podium, and a score of 207.5, Gina Maria placed Ruf Peppy (Lil Ruf Peppy x Diamond Lil x Queens Colonel), owned by Corinna Schumacher. The third place, and score 206.5, was for Jesses Affair Major (Major Vaquero x Jesses Affair x Jesses Impression), also owned by Sky Chanay Management.

Gold for Italy, Silver for Germany and Bronze for Austria!

In the Junior Team competition, taking home the Gold medal with a total score of 639 points was Team Italy. "I am really proud of our Junior riders," said Roberto Cuoghi, president of the Italian Equestrian Sports Federation (FISE) Reining committee. "Every year our junior riders change, yet they always ride to the top notch in international competitions. This goes to show that Italian reining is going in the right direction and that the future of these young athletes is bright."

TULSA REINING CLASSIC WELCOMES CARDINAL REINING HORSES OPEN DERBY

The Tulsa Reining Classic announced in mid-July that Cardinal Reining Horses has come on board as the title sponsor of the Open Derby for 2014, 2015 and 2016.

The Open Derby is a signature event of the Tulsa Reining Classic, which runs August 26-31. Cardinal Training Center is owned by Joao Marcos Arruda Pires. After his purchase in 2013 of the premier reining horse facility formerly known as Green Valley Ranch, John Marcos, as he is known in the United States, changed the name to Cardinal Reining Horses. In the past year, he has quickly claimed a prominent place in the reining world.

Though he might be new to reining, John Marcos is a veteran horseman. He also owns Cardinal Training Center—a 300 acre elite racing horse facility in Ocala, Florida.

Colleen McQuay, a partner of Global Reining Sports Group, which manages the Tulsa Reining Classic, noted, “We are so pleased to have Joao Marcos and Cardinal Ranch become part of the Tulsa Reining Classic for the next three years and we also appreciate his extensive efforts to promote the international reining industry. He is already an asset to many parts of our industry and his support of the TRC is another important contribution to the needs of our sport.”

Each entry in the Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby will receive a special monogrammed jacket featuring both the Tulsa Reining Classic and Cardinal logos.

Reflecting the international ties developing throughout the reining industry, Cardinal Ranch serves as home base for several leading trainers. Brazilian native and NRHA Professional Franco Bertolani is head trainer for Cardinal Reining Horses, along with his wife, Italian Giorgia Codeluppi.

“I always try to hire really good professionals in their field. I hired Franco and Giorgia to oversee the horse training side of the business, and Tom McCutcheon to manage the mares,” John Marcos said, adding that McCutcheon has several of his horses in training.

Cardinal Ranch stood two stallions in 2014, Star Spangled Whiz LTE: $175,000+ (Topsail Whiz x Sheza Shady Slider) owned by Bevilacqua Quarter Horses, Italy, and CFR Centenario Wimpy LTE: $120,000+ (Wimpys Little Step x Miss Hollywood Whiz) owned by Slide or Die LLC, Italy.

Five other trainers run independent businesses out of Cardinal Ranch: NRHA Million Dollar Rider Brian Bell, NRHA Open World Champion Ann Salmon, NRBC Open L3 Champion Ruben Vandorp, Monte Anderman and NRBC Open Finalist Billy Williams.

With $33,000 added, the Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby will feature the industry’s top 4,5 and 6-year-old reining horses and the competition is sure to be fierce in the climactic finale to the week of reining at Tulsa’s Expo Square.

DR. DAVID SIMMONS TO CONDUCT TULSA REINING CLASSIC CHURCH SERVICES

Church services at the Tulsa Reining Classic are on the grow just as every other part of the show and this year hosts Steve and Rita Harris welcome Dr. David Simmons. Simmons, who will deliver the message on Sunday, August 31, is new to the Tulsa Reining Classic but has been instrumental in carrying on-site church services to the equine world.

Cheryl Cody, of the Tulsa Reining Classic Show Management team, noted, “Dave and his wife, Kathleen, through their Cowboy Church Ministries and Silverado Cowboy Church have had a positive impact on many lives at rodeos, reined cow horse events and other horse shows. We are thrilled to have them come to the Tulsa show for the first time.”

Simmons is excited about getting to know a new group of people in the reining community. He noted, “I am very much looking forward to this show and believe that this is a new door opening that will bring new relationships and be great for all of us.”

Cowboy Church Ministries is dedicated to serving and ministering to cowboys and horse people in their own environment. David and Kathleen are both ordained ministers and have traveled both here in the United States and in many other parts of the world with a goal of, in their words, “Training People To Be Leaders in Life Through Discipleship.”

Services will be held at 7 am on Sunday, August 31. To reach David or Kathleen, call (817)825-1164 or visit the website at www.cowboychurchministries.org.

JOSHUA BRIGGS & MELISSA HARRELL WIN REINING WORLD TITLES: 2014 AJP YOUTH WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

APHA 2014 AjPHA Youth World Championship Show, which was took place June 27–July 5 at Will Rogers Memorial Center in Fort Worth, Texas, in conjunction with the NSBA Color of Money Show June 23–26.

In the Youth 13 & Under, Joshua Briggs of Pilot Point, Texas rode Chex By Wrangler to a score of 210 to win the Championship, with Natalie Gydeson of North Loup, Nebraska taking the Reserve World Championship for her score of 207.5.

In the Youth 14-18, Melissa Harrell of Waco, Texas, scored 217.5 on Who Whiz Apaintedchic to win the Championship. Catherine Ensor won the Reserve title on Lil Gun maker with a score of 214.5. Harrell also won the Novice Youth Reining World Championship, with Natalie Gydeson picking up the Reserve title for that class.

In addition to naming 80 world champions over the course of nine days, the Youth World Show featured a total of 97 classes and paid out more than $138,000 in cash and prizes.

Preliminary numbers indicate an increase in entries over the 2013 Youth World Show. When the dust settled and the final champion was named, the show had 330 horses entered, a 15 percent increase over 2013. Entries also grew, with with a total of 1,560 paid entries, a 10 percent increase over 2013. Forty-five states and international countries were represented.

QUALIFY FOR THE APHA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW AT AN NRHA REINING!

If you've got a Paint reining horse, APHA is making it easier than ever to get qualified for the APHA World Championship Show. For the 2014 and 2015 APHA World Shows—which take place annually in November in Fort Worth, Texas, and are home to Open and Amateur world championship classes, along with many other added-money events—APHA has approved 14 National Reining Horse Association-approved shows that will count toward APHA World Show qualification requirements.

Each of the shows counts for a minimum of one show and two judges—to qualify for the APHA World Show, a Paint Horse must have participated in at least four shows and eight judges. Click here to read full qualification requirements for the APHA World Show; no qualification is required to participate in the AjPHA Youth World Championship Show, which takes place annually in June and July.

Unless otherwise noted, these shows are approved only for APHA World Show qualification, not APHA points. Still on the agenda for 2014 are:

2014 World Show Qualifying (August 1, 2013–July 31, 2014)

July 23-27 — Reining By The Bay, Woodside, CA

July 24-27 — Clayton Woosley Hall of Fame Reining, Lexington, KY

2015 World Show Qualifying (August 1, 2014–July 31, 2015)

August 26-31 — NRHA South Central Regional Affiliate Finals, Tulsa, OK

September 5-7 — NRHA East Central Regional Affiliate Finals, Springfield, OH

September 12-14 — NRHA Northeast Regional Affiliate Finals, Logan Township, NJ

September 24-28 — NRHA Mountain Regional Affiliate Finals, Denver, CO

September 25-28 — NRHA Southeast Regional Affiliate Finals, Williamston, NC

October 8-12 — NRHA Northwest Regional Affiliate Finals, Rancho Murieta, CA

IT'S TIME TO NOMINATE NATIONAL REINING BREEDERS CLASSIC FOALS

In the last two decades, the National Reining Breeders Classic program has grown to become an essential part of raising valuable reining horse prospects.

The annual NRBC Show, which is held in April each year at the Great Southwest Equestrian Center in Katy, Texas, has paid out over $16.6 million since its beginning in 1998. The program has substantially impacted the reining industry, helping create millionaire horses and riders and boosting breeding programs into the performance horse limelight.

And the money has been well-spread around the world, with money earners from nearly every state and around the world. To be eligible to win any of that big money, foals must be enrolled in the program, and an important enrollment deadline is right around the corner.

"Foals can be enrolled for $200 as long as the enrollment is postmarked by September 15 of their weanling year," according to the NRBC Program Coordinator, Kaye Nowlin. "After that, it's $250 per foal through December 31 of the weanling year."

She noted that breeders are enrolling foals earlier and earlier each year. "It's something they plan for, and a lot of people send in their foal enrollments when they send off their registration application to the breed associations. It's not necessary to have the registration papers for the foal to enroll."

For information on the NRBC, visit the web site at www.nrbc.com or call 580-759-3939.

DINO LULLI OF ITALY WINS AQHA YOUTH WORLD CUP REINING

Italy claimed victory in reining July 11 at the 2014 American Quarter Horse Youth World Cup, when 16-year-old Dino Lulli earned the gold medal in the international youth competition.

Turbo Shine, a 2002 buckskin gelding by Shining Spark and out of Tivitos Treasure by Docs Tivito, was bred by Richard and Flis Sassella of Marietta, Oklahoma, and is owned by Todd Neiberger of Argyle, Texas.

Every two years, Youth World Cup asks AQHYA members to represent their countries on horses they have never ridden before and often in events they have never competed in. The teams are made up of five riders who have been assigned a set of five donated horses for the event, which began July 3. The riding members of the team and up to five leadership team youth, who don't ride at the show, have responsibility for the care of those horses. This year, 16 countries competed.

The first 16 riders took lessons during a reining clinic led by Fred Thomsson, Bud Lyon and AQHA's new executive director of shows and judges, Pete Kyle. Then they competed. After an afternoon rest break for the horses, the second 16 riders got the same clinic and then competed.

Top three under both judges were:

Gold – Dino Lulli, Italy

Silver – Jan-Niklas Barre, Germany

Bronze – Kalee McCann, USA

2014 NRHA HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE CONGRATULATIONS TO COLLEEN MCQUAY!

When Colleen McQuay was inducted into the National Reining Horse Hall of Fame she became the third member of her family to be so honored, after husband Tim and daughter Mandy McCutcheon.

In the reining world, Colleen has a sterling record as an owner and breeder and her ability to spot equine talent has been instrumental in developing and maintaining the reining side of McQuay Stables. She's also a master at keeping horses sound and more importantly, of keeping the horses' welfare at the forefront at all times.

But, by far, her largest contribution has been in helping to drive reining to a leadership role in the equine industry. For those who have worked with her over the years, the Hall of Fame induction was a fitting recognition of Colleen's tireless hours of behind-the-scene contributions to the reining industry and to the NRHA.

Still, the nomination caught her off guard. "It came as a surprise to me because my accomplishments have involved such a strong support team through the process. Obviously, it was extremely meaningful to join my family and the other people I admire in the Hall of Fame but I really feel I'm accepting the award for all my support people. I've been fortunate to have tremendous teams working with me on whatever projects we've worked on. I will say that being recognized for some of the projects we have been worked on makes me believe those projects will continue and be a part of NRHA and do what they were intended to do from the beginning."

When asked what drove her to become so active, she said simply, "As a member of an association you can choose to simply enjoy the benefits or you can enjoy the benefits while you accept the challenge of working for the organization.

That's essentially what Tim and my path has been from day one."

Over the years Colleen has done just that – helping to develop some of the top equine events and programs in both the Hunter/Jumper and Reining worlds. In the mid-eighties, she was a member of the team which produced the NRHA Derby in St. Paul, Minnesota and in that five-year tenure, reining was forever changed.

"We created fun things. Freestyle reining originated in St. Paul. Derbies were only for four-year-olds in those days – so if a horse was five there was no place to show. With the dual goal of creating some place where older horses could show and creating entertainment it became a place for people to have fun and be creative with their horses.”

The group also created the first celebrity reining. “Again, we were trying to make reining more spectator appealing. Not only did it do that but it introduced reining to a new group of people.”

St. Paul cleared the arena, literally! “We were the first ones to take the back gate judge and the tractor out of the arena because we felt it was interfering with the stage to present our sport,” she remembers, then adds. “We actually took the judges off the floor, too, putting them in the first row seats.”

Along with scripting dual announcers, the show also became the first to section the finals – in those days the Open and the Non Pro had common go-rounds. So the new format was to show the top twenty scores during the ticketed performances and the others early in the afternoon. “That created a lot of opposition in the beginning.”

Another first that began at St. Paul was the paid warm-up. This was Colleen’s idea – coming from her experience in other disciplines and knowledge of the value of being able to school horses. “Some were slow to realize the benefit but pretty soon the ball was rolling – and it had an additional financial benefit to the show.”

In the beginning, Colleen actually ran the back gate with Leo Foure. “We were the ones who knew how the show needed to go. So we had the first paddock master and first back gate. That horse show was also the first one where they had to reserve stalls and we started the sponsorship concept right there. Overall, the goal was to create an environment that was good for the horses - and appealing not only to the one showing the horses but to spectators as well.”

In the past she has served on the board of the NRHA, where she was on the Show Standard Committee and initiated the show rating system. In addition, she served on the Executive Board and chaired Event Production Committee for the two major NRHA-produced shows, the Futurity and Derby.

On the Show Standard Committee, “We were involved with creating tools that gave us show levels where managers could choose to put on horse shows at their comfort level and ability. That show classification system opened door for many things, including the show stewards system.”

Another project was clarifying the eligibility levels for riders. “Our group started all that classifying of eligibilities and when you look at exhibitors I feel that creating levels where exhibitors feel they have a format that they can be competitive in is essential to growth.”

Another essential is a workable schedule for shows, according to Colleen and in her work on the NRHA’s events, there was much to consider. “There were two reasons I said we do not need two go-rounds in the derby – I learned that by watching horses show twice over the years and seeing people literally running out of horse. Not only was that hard on the horse but the finals would not be as exciting.”

That same mind-set was a decider with a later decision to go with a one-round qualifier for the Non Pro Futurity. “Two go-rounds were too hard on the Non Pro horses. And with the time saved, schedule-wise, we could pick an easier pattern rather than a run-in.”

Colleen was also instrumental in starting the short stirrup class. “For many years I wanted to work on the youth program as I felt we needed to attract youth to the industry but I felt I had to wait until Mandy was no longer a youth. I truly felt if we didn’t create a class for little children we could lose them to other sports.”

Colleen continues to be a driving force on the team which developed and now maintains the National Reining Breeders Classic and it is at the NRBC that her signature will long remain. From special events and entertainment to over-the-top décor and activities, the NRBC continues to innovate and is often the proving ground for programs later picked up by the NRHA and other organizations, as with the Prime Time, the one entry fee for all divisions, the lucrative finals for all divisions and the NRBC was the first show to have two classes going in two rings at the same time and later the first show to have classes in three rings concurrently. The foal nomination formula which she helped develop for the NRBC is now integrated into the NRHA Futurity Program.

Serving on the USEF High Performance Reining Committee, Colleen is also a founding member of USA Reining. As the Chairman of Global Reining Sport Group, she is active in the production of the Tulsa Reining Classic.

Although she was not a competition in reining, Colleen has ridden to multiple world and national titles, and her world-class horsemanship and horse knowledge have given her an incredible presence in the hunter and jumper industry, where she has also been instrumental in starting new programs, providing leadership for the associations she works with, and in coaching both amateurs and other trainers.

In the Hunter Jumper world, Colleen continues to serve as a founding board member of the United States Hunter Jumper Association. In addition, Colleen is a founding member of the USHJA International Hunter Derby, serves as a member of the USHJA Hunter Working Group, and a member of the Super Series Group, pilots of the Texas Pre-Green Super Stake Series which has paid out over $230,000 to enrollees in its first two years. After launching the Texas Pre-Green Series, Colleen was instrumental in the USHJA’s launch of their national Pre-Green Incentive Program in 2013. She also serves as chair of the Hunter Development Task Force.

2014 NRHA DALE WILKINSON LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

CONGRATULATIONS TO JERRY KIMMEL!

There couldn't have been a more popular recipient of the National Reining Horse Association's Dale Wilkinson Lifetime Achievement Award than Jerry Kimmel and the standing ovation that followed his announcement was proof positive of that. Those fortunate enough to know him are unanimous in thinking it was a fitting reward for one of the most selfless individuals in the reining world.

The first thing you notice about Jerry Kimmel has always been his smile! His friendliness has drawn people to him since he appeared on the reining scene in the late nineties. The next thing you notice – if a reining is going on in the arena – is that he literally can't keep his eyes away.

There has long been a love affair between Jerry Kimmel and horses. In his acceptance speech at the presentation of the award, he said simply, "I love horses and I love horse people." For Jerry, that sums it up, but it only gives a tiny clue to his willingness to support and participate in the horse world.

Jerry was an ultra-successful owner in the quarter horse world before he came to reining. His pleasure horses had earned multiple awards and accolades, especially his famous mare, four-time World Champion Western Pleasure Horse Zippos Amblin Easy. When exposure to the reining event at AQHA shows tweaked Jerry's interest, his trainer, Cleve Wells, led him to Tim & Colleen McQuay's place, in Tioga, Texas. He began to ride under Tim's tutelage and as his skills improved, he bought some steppingstone horses. "That was after I learned to go fast," he laughed.

The magic really began when he purchased Dun Gotta Gun, being ridden at that time by Mandy McCutcheon, who had shown him to the NRHA Futurity Non Pro Reserve title.

He bought the stallion with the idea that Tim would show him, but not before Jerry was able to spend some arena time on his back.

In his words, "We'll get to that later. I just want to enjoy him for a while." And he did. It goes back to that smile. It was never brighter than when he was on Gun's back.

After he turned the reins over to Tim, Dun Gotta Gun continued to achieve, attracting attention as an Open caliber horse and he became the centerpiece of Jerry's breeding program that would be joined by his next stallion, Mister Nicadual.

Concurrently with raising top quality horses, Jerry felt the need to give back to the industry. He's perhaps most known for having served as chairman of the United States Equestrian Federation's reining division in 2008 when it was announced by the USEF that there was no money to send the reining team to Manerbio, Italy for the FEI Reining World Championship – which would take place only months away in September.

Jerry will long be remembered for his statement to the USA Team that they should make plans to go and that they would go, "even if I have to pay it myself."

This man's word has always been good. So he raised what funds he could for the event and made up the $44,000 deficit himself. He had put his money where his mouth was on another project a few years earlier. He and friend Ray Roles wondered why there wasn't a big show like the All American Quarter Horse Congress in the western United States. Together they started one – the Scottsdale Classic Futurity and Quarter Horse Show.

The show would combine an AQHA Show and an NRHA Reining and they chose Westworld in Scottsdale for the site. For the next decade, the event was a hallmark for the show world.

2014 NRHA DALE WILKINSON LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

CONGRATULATIONS TO PAT WARREN!

It was the late eighties when Pat Warren became disillusioned with the rules in the show jumping world, so the lifelong horsewoman turned her attention to riding some western horses. Around 1990, she bought a reiner and began to compete.

She wasn't really a beginner. She had already racked up major success in the American Horse Shows Association world.

She was really competitive and she tackled this new sport with aplomb, quickly becoming a familiar face at reining events around the country. Along with showing as a Non Pro, she and husband Jim, built a ranch and training facility that they named Rancho Oso Rio and hired Dell Hendricks as their trainer.

Success and prominence in the arena came quickly. Tasked to acquire some NRHA Futurity prospects, Dell picked a filly named Taris Little Vintage, which he showed to a third place finish at the 1994 NRHA Futurity, and won an AQHA Reining World Championship on the next year.

She would produce a foal they sold to Alan And Kay Needle, Hollywood Vintage (by Hollywood Dun It) that Hendricks would ride to win the 1994 NRHA Open Futurity Championship. Bred to Mr Boomerjac, she produced Taris Designer Genes, which Randy Paul would ride to the NRHA Futurity Championship in 2006.

The mare would go on to win over a quarter of a million dollars. The combined records of her two foals propelled Taris Little Vintage to the NRHA Hall of Fame.

Two futurity champions and a Hall of Fame induction would be premier achievement for any breeding facility. But the Rancho Oso Rio breeding program produced another standout when Tinker Nic was bred to Gunner to produce Tinker With Guns. A 2006 foal, Tinker With Guns injured his suspensory ligament during the 2010 NRHA Futurity.

After a year to recuperate, he was paired with Andrea Fappani and went on to win the 2011 Cactus Classic, the 2011 NRHA World Championship Shootout and the 2011 NRHA Derby, and the Reserve Championship at the 2012 NRBC, which boosted his career earnings over $340,000.

In 2012, Rancho Oso Rio became NRHA's fifth Million Dollar Owner. But it's not all been breeding and showing for Warren. She has given back to the industry through her sponsorship and support of a variety of events worldwide. But it was a passion for and a vision of great west coast shows that partnered her with Amanda Brumley and that pairing changed the face of reining in the western US.

Warren became co-producer of Reining by the Bay in 2002 and it has grown to be a must-attend event. That was followed by the Cactus Reining Classic, and finally the High Roller Classic. Those three events have moved into the NRHA's top ten list.
