CACTUS REINING CLASSIC, 2015

“A YEAR TO REMEMBER”

by Christy Egan

2015 marks the eleventh anniversary of the Cactus Reining Classic at WestWorld in Scottsdale, Arizona. To say that the show has come a long way since its inception in 2005 is probably a king sized understatement. Amanda Brumley and her Brumley Management Group, LLC rescued the show and the WestWorld dates, struggled through the first few tough years and has watched it succeed dramatically ever since.

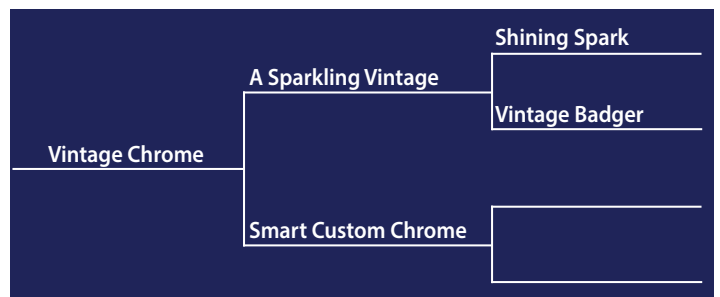

“In 2014 the growth of the event was astonishing and record breaking,” Amanda shakes her head smiling. “Coming into the show, I thought ... there is no way it can have another increase this year; I was wrong. We had over 600 stalls booked for the show and saw more entries in the Non Pro Derby, Youth and Non Pro Maturity. We had 15 horses in both slates of Short Stirrup, which were the biggest numbers we’ve ever had for those classes. I loved watching those kids. Everybody loved the kids. It all ran so smoothly. I could not have been more pleased with the event overall. It was another wonderful show and I am very grateful to everyone who supported it.”

Certainly the circumstances of this show’s success have something to do with the winter weather in the desert, which (ignoring a bit of rain the first of the week) held to mid-seventies and low eighties throughout the show. And the WestWorld facility always gets glowing reviews from exhibitors and spectators. The grounds keepers make a real effort regarding the footing in the main rings and the warm-up, and the condition of the stabling always gets top marks from horsemen.

Wednesday and Thursday were filled with great competition, though everyone was anxious for the arrival of Friday morning and the start of the $40,000 Added Protect The Harvest Non-Pro Derby. Winner of over $6,000 in the Level 4 Aged Event was Cade McCutcheon on Vintage Chrome. Jessica Sternberg and Spook N Sparkle took Reserve honors and $3,000 in that event. That team also won the Level 3 Intermediate and the Level 2 Limited Non Pro for total earnings of $8,569.09. First thing Saturday morning in the SmartPak $10,000 Added Non-Pro 7 & Up Maturity, Sternberg stepped aboard Shiners Chic and won $2873.75 by taking second in the Level 4 Non Pro Maturity, first in the Level 3 Non Pro Maturity and first in the Level 2 Limit Non Pro Maturity. The top money of $1205.69 for winning the Level 4 went to Tish Fappani and Premier Diamond.

It was not a big surprise when Andrea Fappani took top honors in the $70,000 Added Lucas Oil Open Derby, winning the competition and nearly $13,000 aboard SG Frozen Enterprize for owners Silver Spurs Equine; third place and almost $7,000 on Electric Genes, and eighth place of $2,500+ with Gunna Sassya.

Kevin Williams and West Coast Beach Boy took High Point in his division by winning the Limited Non-Pro (one of the largest of the ancillary divisions with 42 entries) and the Limited Non-Pro (with 69 entries). The pair took home a Bob's Custom Saddle with the High Point Limited Non Pro win. Sweeping the High Point in the Rookie and Prime Time divisions, Joe Moran had arrived at the Cactus Classic just hoping for a buckle win and went home with four!

"Just to win a buckle was a dream for me," laughs Joe. "So many cool people come to the Cactus Reining Classic, I never thought I had a chance. It was a miracle! My first two trips into the pen I pulled 72.5 on each of my horses. It may never happen again. I appreciated winning the saddle, I really did. But the buckle ... at last I can wear a buckle like everybody else!

Cory Vokoun and her horse Snow Star Wrangler were in the money consistently in the Novice divisions. Cori believes that the three Brumley shows are geared to reward consistent performers. "There are so many prizes and great programs at the three shows," Cory notes. "Everybody has buckles and saddles at their shows. These shows reward right down the line. It gives great purpose to all the horses

Another perk for attending all three of the Brumley shows: The Cactus Reining Classic, Reining By The Bay and the Las Vegas High Roller is the Triffecta Non Pro Reining Challenge. The rider with the highest money earners at the end of the third show will win a trip to the Salamander Resort and Spa, Middleburg, Virginia. Harper Conner and Jacs Princess and Jessica Sternberg and Spook N Sparkle, are currently tied for the Triffecta lead.

SHAWN FLARIDA WINS THE REINING AT THE 2015 COWTOWN SHOWDOWN

The 2015 Markel AQHA Cowtown Showdown, presented by the City of Fort Worth, featured cutting, reining, ranch horse and reined cow horse competition.

Presented by the city of Fort Worth, Texas, the Cowtown Showdown was held during the 2015 AQHA Convention. The convention commemorated the association's 75th anniversary and was hosted by Fort Worth, where AQHA was founded.

The event began with the presentation of the American flag, escorted by four Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders. The US National Anthem was sung by singer/songwriter/actor and NRHA reiner Lyle Lovett accompanied by cellist and long-time band member John Hagen.

The reining was the second event of the night, after cutting, and NRHA Professionals Shawn Flarida, Dell Hendricks and Tim McQuay, along with Non Pro Lyle Lovett slid, spun and circled their horses for the audience. Five Million Dollar Rider Shawn earned the reining win aboard Smart Spook.

Shawn has won every major reining event multiple times, including the NRHA Futurity and Derby, National Reining Breeders Classic and All American Quarter Horse Congress. Shawn's a multiple AQHA world champion and highly successful multiple gold medalist in FEI World Equestrian Games international competition. Smart Spook is a 2001 stallion (Smart Chick Olena-Sugarplum Spook by Grays Starlight) owned by Rosanne Sternberg. Smart Spook is a NRHA Futurity and Derby champion, three-time

NEW AQHA EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The members of the 2015-2016 AQHA Executive Committee were elected at the 2015 AQHA Convention in Fort Worth, Texas. This five-person committee is responsible for implementing important decisions by AQHA members through the Association's board of directors.

President Dr. Glenn Blodgett

Dr. Glenn Blodgett of Guthrie, Texas, became an AQHA director in 1991, and in 2011, elevated to director-at-large. Dr. Blodgett served on the AQHA Stud Book and Registration Committee and as its chairman. He also served on the American Quarter Horse Hall of Fame Selection Committee and the American Quarter Horse Foundation, and the AQHA Ranching and Marketing and Membership councils.

Dr. Blodgett received his bachelor's degree in animal science from Oklahoma State University and earned his degree in veterinary medicine from Texas A&M University, and he has since been recognized as an outstanding alumnus by both universities.

In 1982, Dr. Blodgett became the resident veterinarian and manager of the horse division at the Four Sixes Ranch. In his tenure at the Four Sixes, which is located near Guthrie, Texas, the ranch has become an all-time leading breeder of both racing and performance American Quarter Horses, and in 1993, won the AQHA Best Remuda Award. In addition to its cattle, the horse operation raises racing, performance and ranch horses. Dr. Blodgett is the recipient of the 2011 AQHA Racing Council Special Recognition Award.

He and his wife, Karen, have two daughters: Buffie Guynes, who lives with husband Michael and daughters Catherine, Rebecca and Clair in Keller, Texas; and Brandie Mustian, who lives with husband Mike, son Maddox and daughter Myla in Weatherford, Texas.

First Vice President Sandy Arledge

Sandy Arledge of Encinitas, California, was elected first vice president of AQHA. She has been an AQHA director since 1997 and elevated to director emeritus in 2011. She has served on the membership, shows and professional horsemen, judges, stud book and registration and Hall of Fame selection committees. Arledge also served on the nominations and credentials committee and served as the committee's chairwoman in 2010. She has served on the Foundation council and currently serves on the animal welfare commission.

She received her bachelor's degree from San Diego State University and her Juris Doctor degree from the University of San Diego School of Law.

Arledge is active in the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Association and California Horse Council. She owned and operated Sandy Arledge Quarter Horses and was a general partner and manager of Far West Farms, a full-service boarding facility in Del Mar, California. She has bred and trained numerous AQHA world champions and reserve world champions. She was named the 2010 Professional's Choice Professional Horsewoman of the Year.

She was inducted into the Pacific Quarter Horse Association Hall of Fame this year.

Second Vice President Ralph Seekins

Ralph Seekins of Fairbanks, Alaska, has been an AQHA director since 2006 for Washington/Alaska. Seekins has served on the AQHA marketing and membership committee, the Foundation council and the AQHA public policy committee.

Seekins began his association with American Quarter Horses in 1995 when his daughters convinced him and his wife, Connie, that they really needed horses. His early years with horses included ranch work and sprint racing. The first two horses for the Seekins family were home-trained and went on to earn AQHA open championships, AQHYA championships, AQHYA supreme champion titles and one youth versatility award.

For more than 13 years, the Seekins family has used their American Quarter Horses in the Helping Hooves therapeutic riding program for riders with disabilities.

Member Dr. Jim Heird

Dr. Jim Heird of College Station, Texas, was an AQHA director for Colorado in 2009 and became a Texas director in 2011. He has served on the judges, international and show committees. Dr. Heird was chair of the judges, show and international committees as well as the show council and animal welfare commission.

He is a former extension horse specialist for North Carolina; instructor/professor at Texas Tech University in Lubbock; and has held various dean/director positions at Colorado State University for the colleges of ag sciences, equine sciences and business. Dr. Heird is currently the executive professor and coordinator of equine initiatives at Texas A&M University.

He has been an AQHA judge since 1977 and has judged 13 AQHA World Championship Shows, multiple international championships and two National Reining Horse Association Futurities.

Member Stan Weaver

Stan Weaver of Big Sandy, Montana, has been an AQHA director since 2011. He has served as a member of the studbook and registration, public policy and Hall of Fame selection committees and the marketing and membership and ranching councils. He has been the chair of the ranching council since 2011.

Weaver is a Ranching Heritage Breeder and is also a 31-year breeder of more than 1,400 foals.

He owns and operates Weaver Cattle Co. and Weaver Order Buying, a cattle brokerage firm.

Weaver is involved with the Big Sandy Public School Board, North Central Montana Stockgrowers, Montana Reined Cow Horse Futurity, Montana Cowboy Hall of Fame, Montana Quarter Horse Association, Montana Land & Mineral Owners and County Livestock Protection Association.

Weaver received the award for the Montana Quarter Horse Association 1997 Ranch of the Year. Weaver Cattle Co. was recognized as the 2014 Montana State University Family Business of the Year in the business category for operations in existence at least 50 years.

AQHA NAMES PROFESSIONALS OF THE YEAR

Gary Roberts, Stephanie Lynn and Holly Hover are honored at the 2015 AQHA Convention in Fort Worth

Stephanie Lynn, Holly Hover and Gary Roberts were honored at the 2015 AQHA Convention.

Three industry professionals were recognized by their peers March 8 at the 2015 American Quarter Horse Association Convention in Fort Worth, Texas.

The Don Burt Professional's Choice Professional Horseman of the Year, Professional's Choice Professional Horsewoman of the Year and Professional's Choice Most Valuable Professional awards were presented by AQHA Corporate Partner Professional's Choice during the Association's Awards Banquet.

Gary Roberts

The 2014 Professional's Choice Don Burt Professional Horseman of the Year is Gary Roberts of Murrieta, California. Roberts is known for his unparalleled work ethic, honesty, integrity and the quality of training. He takes the stewardship of the animals in his care seriously and provides excellent and compassionate care for them.

Roberts donates his time to judge local 4-H and open shows and makes himself available whenever needed to assist both youth and professionals. He has given countless hours to the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Association and local open associations.

As an AQHA judge, Roberts has served on the PCQHA board of directors and was instrumental in developing joint National Reining Horse Association- and AQHA-approved events in California.

He and his wife, Kelley, currently own and operate a large barn, training horses for western pleasure, western riding, trail, reining and performance halter. Kelley was the 2013 Professional's Choice Professional Horsewoman of the Year.

Stephanie Lynn

The 2014 Professional's Choice Professional Horsewoman of the Year is Stephanie Lynn of Fall Creek, Wisconsin. Lynn is the epitome of a true horsewoman. She has dedicated her life to the advancement of the American Quarter Horse. She has been training and showing horses for more than 35 years. She has trained and coached numerous world, national and All American Quarter Horse Congress champions in various divisions and disciplines.

Lynn is an AQHA judge and steward who has also served on the Association of Professional Horsemen's Council for the past seven years. She helped develop the Ride the Rail/Ride the Pattern clinics and town-hall meetings. She is currently the chairwoman of the AQHA Show Council, serves on the AQHA Animal Welfare Commission and has taught at AQHA judges educational seminars.

Holly Hover

The 2014 Most Valuable Professional Award goes to Holly Hover of Cave Creek, Arizona. Hover moved to Arizona 16 years ago and never looked back. She is happy to help the Arizona Quarter Horse Association in any way, shape or form: from bringing in sponsorships for the Arizona Sun Circuit and Arizona Fall Championship shows to hosting clinics.

Hover is always willing to go the extra mile for her clients and is known for her upbeat and friendly attitude.

She has been involved with the American Quarter Horse Youth World Cup, youth committee and the steering committee for the AQHA Level 1 Championships. She is actually credited with developing the idea for the AQHA Level 1 Championships. She holds judges cards with AQHA and the American Paint Horse, National Reining Horse and National Snaffle Bit associations. She has also judged at the AQHA World Championship Show 11 times.

When asked what she is most proud of, Hover humbly talks about the many friends she has made in the horse industry.

About the Professional Horsemen of the Year Awards

Being named an AQHA Professional Horseman of the Year is one of the top awards of the equine industry. These individuals were nominated and voted on by their peers.

Congratulations to the 2014 professionals of the year. Look for more information on this year's winners in the May issue of The American Quarter Horse Journal.

REGISTERING CROPOUT HORSES WITH APHA IS EASIER THAN EVER!

Though the American Paint Horse Association has been registering cropout paints—those colorful stock horses with Quarter Horse or Thoroughbred lineage only—since 2012, it's now easier than ever to register these horses with APHA. Thanks to a new rule change, cropout Paints must meet the same color-registration guidelines as horses with at least one Paint parent. Under the new guidelines, which go into effect immediately, more cropouts will be eligible for APHA registration.

Previously, cropouts were eligible for APHA registration, but they had to meet more stringent color requirements than horses with at least one Paint parent. At the 2015 APHA Convention, the association's Board of Directors voted to streamline the association's requirements to qualify for the Regular Registry. The directors also approved early implementation of this rule, which went into effect earlier this month. Now to qualify for the Regular Registry, Paints—regardless of lineage—must have a natural Paint marking that extends more than two inches above the center of the knee or hock, or beyond an imaginary line that extends from the base of the ear to the outside corner of the eye to the corner of the mouth and under the chin.

APHA Director of MemberCare Theresa Brown, who is also part of the APHA Registration Review Committee, says these guidelines will help grow the number of cropout Paints being registered by APHA.

"I have, on average, one cropout a day that crosses my desk for color consideration," she said. "Under the previous cropout registration rules, many of those horses were turned away because the color requirements were very hard to meet. I expect the number of new cropout registrations and applications to increase with the new color requirement for those horses.”

Consistency in APHA’s registration requirements has a number of benefits. These guidelines help reduce confusion among horse owners regarding APHA registration requirements, and they will also help provide a valuable revenue stream to the association through registrations, transfers and memberships. These cropout horses are a valuable addition to the APHA industry—they likely carry color-producing genes that might be passed on to their offspring, making them valuable additions to Paint breeding programs as well as the show ring.

As of January 1, cropout registration fees have also been reduced; current fees are:

- 0–90 days after foaling or by June 30 of year foaled (whichever is later): $70 (member rate, online)
- July 1–September 30 of year foaled: $80 (member rate, online)
- October 1–December 31 of year foaled: $95 (member rate, online)

- Yearling Year & Older: $150 (member rate, online)
- *See 2015 Official APHA Rule Book for the complete fee schedule, including member mail-in rate and non-member fees

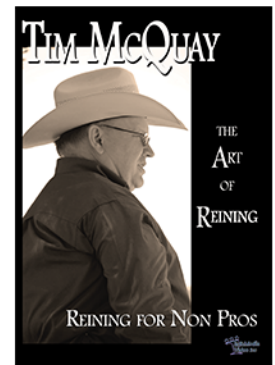

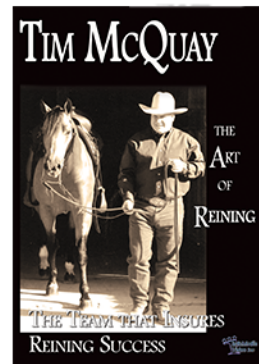

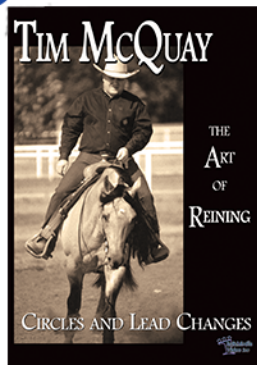

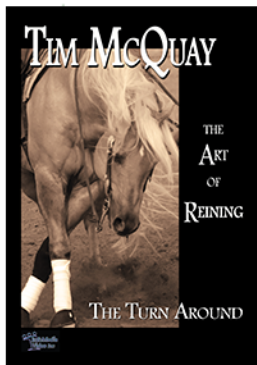

Registering a cropout is easy—submit the registration online at aphaonline.org, print a registration application online at apha.com/forms/registration-forms or contact a MemberCare representative at (817) 222-6423. Check out our online registration how-to video on YouTube.com/aphavideo to save the most money on your cropout registration.

The American Paint Horse Association is the world’s second-largest international equine breed association, registering more than a million horses in 59 nations and territories since it was founded. APHA creates and maintains programs that increase the value of American Paint Horses and enriches members’ experiences with their horses.

Reflections

with Ruben van Dorp

For instance, one person believes it's all right to eat anything. But another believer with a sensitive conscience will eat only vegetables. Romans 14:2

Many of us look at our brothers and sisters and compare our lives, our faith and our walks. Sometimes we wonder how others can do certain things that we would "never" do.... What is the law a christian must follow? It's simple, it's not about you; it's about His kingdom. Whatever is best for His kingdom is always the right answer. All of us are in different spots, with stronger or weaker faith in our walk and The Holy Spirit speaks to each of us individually. What works for some of us, won't work for others. However, remember that the law was never made to keep people from walking with God, but to allow people to walk with Him. Encourage, don't discourage your brothers and sisters; it's not about you. It always was and always will be about Him.

*Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. # 2015 NRHA HOST HOTELS ANNOUNCED!

Host hotels for the 2015 National Reining Horse Association Derby and Futurity are ready to accept reservations for both events at special, reduced rates just for NRHA spectators, members and owners.

The room rate guarantee deadline for the NRHA Derby is set for June 12, 2015. Visit nrhaderby.com/hotels.php to make reservations. After June 12, advertised hotel room rates are not guaranteed.

“Having the opportunity to partner with Oklahoma City and all these great lodging opportunities shows NRHA and our members just how special these two major events are to the western culture of Oklahoma. When you make your reservations, please be sure to thank them for supporting NRHA,” said Todd Knerr, NRHA Futurity and Derby Show Manager.

The hosts for this year’s NRHA Derby include: NRHA

Host Hotel Wyndham Gardens; NRHA Executive Committee Hotel Hilton Garden Inn; National Reining Horse Youth Association Hotel Embassy Suites; and Interscholastic Equestrian Association Hotel Fairfield Inn & Suites and Towne Place Suites.

In addition to these featured host hotels, NRHA has partnered with Best Western Saddleback Inn; Biltmore Hotel; Candlewood Suites; Country Inn & Suites; Courtyard By Marriott; Doubletree By Hilton; Hampton Inn & Suites; Holiday Inn; Homewood Suites; Staybridge Suites; and The Tower.

The 2015 NRHA Derby is set for June 20 – 27 at the Oklahoma State Fair Park in Oklahoma City. Updated Derby Conditions for 2015 as well as a schedule and list of host hotel contacts are available now at nrhaderby.com.
