ROBIN SCHOELLER WINS ALL AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE CONGRESS OPEN FUTURITY ON TINSELTOWN FLASH

Robin Schoeller of South Vienna, Ohio, earned $32,193 when he won the Congress Open Reining Futurity Finals for a score of 225.5 on Tinseltown Flash. Tinseltown Flash is by Hollywoodtinseltown out of Gunner mare and is owned by Beth Himes' Ruoff Dietter Reining Horses.

Bred by McQuay Stables, Tinseltown Flash was a product of the Legacy Sale, where he was sold to Jonathan Gauthier. Himes purchase him a year ago. The purchase was a sort of a bargain between Schoeller and Himes. Robin rides all Himes' horses. She noted, "I've known Robin since he came to the U.S. to work for Shawn Florida ten or twelve years ago.

But what was the bargain? Himes continued, "He told me if I'd buy a good 2-year-old I could show one of the older horses." Hence the decision to purchase Tinseltown Flash.

The Congress was the third event for the flashy red dun. He was shown once in August, then went to the Tulsa Reining Classic where he ended up earning money in the L4. Next stop was congress.

According to Schoeller, the horse just came to his own at Columbus. When he was preparing for the finals he told Himes, "I don't know if I want to get back on --- he's ready - he knows his job and he's ready to go." Shortly after, the 225.5 proved the trainer's words to be prophetic.

"I'm so glad Robins first big Level 4 win came in Ohio where we live," noted Himes.

The Reserve Championship went to Jordan Larson of Whitesboro, Texas on Freddie Brasfield's Wimpys Lil Tag. His score of 224.5 earned $19,565.

In the Level 3 Intermediate Open Futurity, the winner was another Ohio resident, Brandon Brant of Belle Center, showing Laura Leitner's Spook N Reyn to a score of 219. That earned $12,256. Reserve Honors went to Tracer Gilson on Shiners Gotta Whiz, owned by Loren Booth.

Mathieu Buton took the Level 2 Championship (based on the first go) on Ms Mercedes Whiz, good for $3859. Sean Johnson of Kellyville, Oklahoma earned $2348 on Show Snap N for owner Sparrow Hawk Farms Ltd.

In the Prime Time Futurity, there was a three-way tie for the championship. Garth Brown rode The Wimpinator, owned by Charles Vaughn and Tinsel Spooks owned by Jason Dobrinsky and Casey Hinton rode Dreamin Ruf, owned by Casey and Kathy Hinton.

FATHER AND SON SWEEP FREESTYLE REINING

Courtesy All American Quarter Horse Congress - Barbara Aitken

"I was hoping to beat him for once. But as usual, that didn't happen," said Reed Kyle as his father, Pete Kyle chuckled in the background. Both Kyles competed in last night's All American Quarter Horse Congress (AAQHC)

Freestyle Reining, and received top honors. Pete Kyle marked a 232 to sweep the Open division while Reed marked his debut freestyle run with a score of 225 to walk away with the Reserve title.

The father and son duo packed up their bags at their ranch in Whitesboro, Texas Friday night and drove the 1000 mile journey to Columbus especially for the AAQHC Freestyle.

Pete, who serves as the executive director of shows and judges for AQHA, had decided against competing at the AAQHC this year until Reed offered him a deal.

“Reed called me up and said, ‘let’s do the freestyle. I’ll enter it and let’s go up.’ And I thought that’d be fun. ‘Let’s do that together,’” recalled Pete.

“He’s so busy with his schedule now, and so am I these days,” explained Reed, who works for Thomas Moore Feed as a north Texas territory sales manager. “Just to get some time out of our busy schedules to spend time together traveling and showing made it so much fun.”

Pete, whose name is synonymous with freestyle reining shared his “tricks of the trade” with his son before competing at the AAQHC.

“We both picked out fun music that we hoped everybody would enjoy. We worked out a program, but didn’t practice the routine much. We just made sure our horses were doing the maneuvers really well so we didn’t get caught up in the excitement. That’s what we did, and it worked well.”

Good solid maneuvers and having a good time are Pete’s key components of a successful freestyle. “Just relax and have fun. That’s what it’s all about.”

Reed believes he’s learned from one of the best—his father. “This is my first [freestyle] but I’ve been able to watch my dad and was able to learn a lot from him growing up and just see how to do it all.”

Both Pete and Reed see a bright future for the reining industry and freestyle reining. “[Reining] is a global sport and associations think there is a place for freestyle. It’s entertaining and brings new people to the industry. They watch it, enjoy it, then want to get involved in reining,” says Pete.

“I have a love and passion for reining and want to see it continue to grow,” added Reed.

The AAQHC holds a special place for both father and son.

As Pete said, “The Congress has always been special for me and I’ve had a lot of success here. The crowd is great. They just treat you like kings. it’s a great show and I think it’s the best freestyle going.”

A BIT OF CONGRESS REINING HISTORY

The Congress NRHA Open Reining Futurity is one of the many highlights of the All American Quarter Horse Congress (AAQHC). Each year, reiners travel thousands of miles to compete in the prestigious Futurity where they are able to show off their best three-year-olds and compete for the largest pre NRHA Futurity purse in the nation. The Congress NRHA Open Reining Futurity is simply unlike any other reining event.

The Congress NRHA Open Reining Futurity holds a connection between the NRHA and the AAQHC that cannot be broken. The connection dates back to the early years of the quarter horse industry in Ohio. Amidst the infancy of the Ohio Quarter Horse Association (OQHA) in the early 1960s, another fraction of the horse industry began to form—reining.

“The quarter horse shows had a reining class at the end, but it wasn’t anything much,” recalls Clark Bradley, an NRHA Hall of Fame member and longtime OQHA Director, board member, and Hall of Fame member. “At one time, we didn’t even have patterns. We just went in the pen and did maneuvers.”

After a while, completing maneuvers in random order did not pose as much of a challenge. Consequently, a group of the reining individuals decided to develop patterns. Bradley stills remembers the first pattern he rode. “We started loping in a circle and made a smaller and smaller circle over and over again until we broke down into a spin.”

That same group of people began thinking that these horses they called reiners could potentially contribute from a specialized group of their own. A short time later, the National Reining Horse Association began in Coshocton, Ohio.

In 1966, the first NRHA Futurity was held in Columbus, Ohio. One year later in 1967, the All American Quarter Horse Congress made its debut in Columbus. While only a three day show, the AAQHC welcomed the NRHA Futurity to be a part of its growing event. For the next 18 years excluding the year in 1972 when it was moved to Sedalia, Missouri, the NRHA Futurity was part of the AAQHC.

“At the point when we moved to Oklahoma City, we were outgrowing the Congress. With the NRHA Futurity and the Congress in one place at one time, the grounds just weren’t big enough,” explained Bradley.

When the NRHA Futurity permanently moved to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the idea to develop a Congress NRHA Open Reining Futurity came to light. Since 1986 the Congress NRHA Reining Futurity has been a permanent fixture of the AAQHC.

Over the past few years, the AAQHC and the NRHA have worked closely with one another to ensure that the Congress NRHA Open Reining Futurity remain a top-tier reining event.

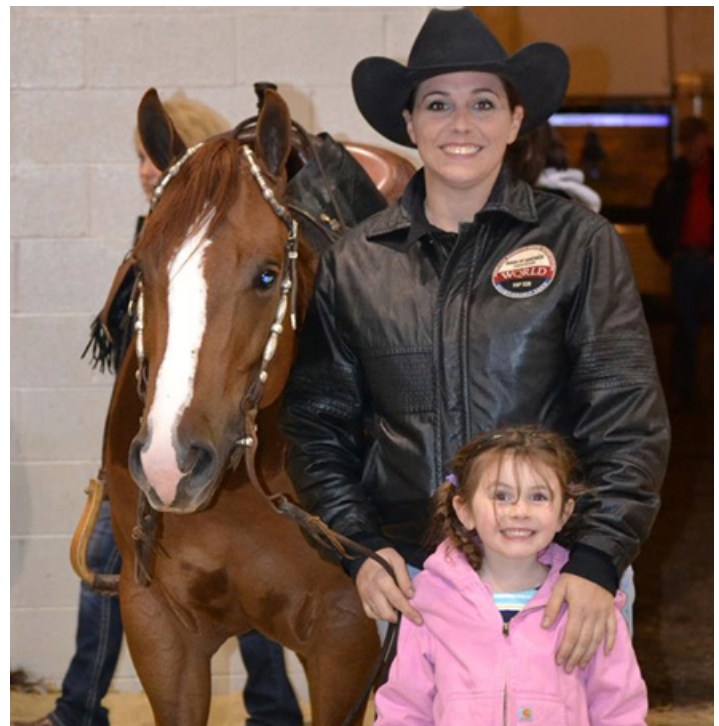

The 49th AAQHC’s new barn improvements and additional added money made the trip worthwhile for many of the world’s top trainers.

JESSICAH TORPEY WINS ALL AMERICAN QUARTER HORSE CONGRESS NON PRO REINING FUTURITY ON MALENA CHIC OLENA

Jessicah Torpey rode Hilldale Farm’s Malena Chic Olena to a score of 2016 to win $8,885 and the Level 4 Non Pro Reining Stakes at the 2015 All American Quarter Horse Congress. Owned by Hilldale Farm, Malena Chic Olena is by Hickory Chic Olena and out of Malena Chex by Nu Chex To Cash.

Reserve honors for finishing just a half point behind went to Andre De Bellefeuille fo Quebec on Little Gun, owned by Equine Plus. That was worth $5,408 and he also claimed the Intermediate Non Pro Championship, good for another $5,070 AND the Prime Time Championship, which garnered another $765. Dr. Jim Morgan of Pilot Point, Texas was just a point behind in the Intermediate (Level 3) and earned $3086 for the reserve title on Smart Stepin Lena.

The Level Two Stakes title went to Veronica Deans of Gainesville, Texas for her score of 213.5 on her Chickoree Tom and that was worth $1618. Lauren Sanborn was reserve on MDS Steppin Kid, owned by Joanne Hodges.

SYNBIONT SPONSORS SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY OPEN MARE BONUS

Synbiont Agricultural Wash has joined the family of supporters of Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show presented by Billingsley Ford. This 31-year-old event, regularly one of the top shows on the National Reining Horse Association's yearly schedule, returns October 20-25 to the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma.

"We are so pleased to welcome Synbiont Ag Wash to our family of sponsors," said SWRHA Show Manager Cheryl Cody.

"It's a fitting partnership as Hardy Murphy already uses Synbiont for cleaning the facility!"

Synbiont Ag Wash is a versatile, multipurpose cleaning product for large animals and their surroundings. Used to clean areas that are prone to host pathogens, viruses, bacteria and fungi, Synbiont Ag Wash can be applied to the animal itself, facilities, stalls, kennels, bridles, bits, water buckets, feeders and places where animals frequent. Unlike a disinfectant, it cleans an area in two ways: First it cleans the host area where pathogens grow by emulsifying dirt and soil; then it compromises the cell walls of the pathogen. For information visit the website at www.synbiontagwash.com.

CONQUISTADOR WHIZ REACHES NRHA TWO MILLION DOLLAR SIRE STATUS

The National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) announced its newest Two Million Dollar Sire, Conquistador Whiz owned by Silver Spurs Equine. A 1995 stallion by NRHA Ten Million Dollar Sire Topsail Whiz out of Sugarita Chex by Bueno Chex, Conquistador Whiz proved his worth in the show pen before beginning a lucrative career in the breeding shed.

Conquistador Whiz's competitive reining career was indicative of his athleticism and heart. Ridden by NRHA Two Million Dollar Rider Duane Latimer, he was the 2000 National Reining Breeders Classic (NRBC) and NRHA Derby Champion. In 2002, the bay dynamo proved he was more than fit for International competition when he became the 2002 USET Festival of Champions Reining Championship winner. Ridden by Million Dollar Rider Tom McCutcheon, the pair made it a clean sweep by winning both go rounds and the finals. At the 2002 World Equestrian Games, Conquistador Whiz ended his show career in grand fashion by winning a Gold Medal in the Team competition and a Silver Medal in the Individual competition.

In the breeding shed, the bay stallion established his reputation quickly when from his first foal crop Conquistador Whiz sired one of the sport's most successful reining horses based on money earned. KR Lil Conquistador, owned and bred by Cheree Kirkbride, earned more than $422,900 in NRHA competition. Out of Smart Little Prize, the 2002 gelding first came to prominence in 2005. Ridden by Shawn Flarida, NRHA's Highest-Money-Earning Rider,

KR Lil Conquistador earned Futurity championships at the All American Quarter Horse Congress and the NRHA Futurity. He remains NRHA's All Time Highest Money Earning Gelding and is Number 2 on the list of NRHA's Highest Money Earning Horses. Reflections with Ruben van Dorp

That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong. 2 Corinthians 12:10

How can some people be so incredibly strong when they are at their weakest? Some of us know the answer to that question, not because we read or heard about it; but because we lived it. It is in the hard times, the troubled times, the sick times that my weaknesses show up. Thank God that He always shows up strong in these times. God's grace is enough to get me through everything and His power shows up in amazing ways when I so desperately need it. When you are personally at your weakest, you can experience His supernatural strength. True strength!

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. If you would like to be added to the text message list, text him at 214-243-0447.

SMART CHIC OLENA PRESERVING THE LEGACY

Trevor and Tiffany Bond, Smokin Gun Performance Horses, of Mound Valley, Kansas, announce their acquisition of the late Smart Chic Olena, along with the inventory of his frozen semen and all breeding rights. The World Champion and NRHA Hall of Fame stallion was euthanized in June of 2012, at the age of 27. At the time of the stallion's death, he was owned by Bill Richardson, of Whitesboro, Texas, who had obtained the stallion through the Chapter 11 Trustee of Babcock Quarter Horses, Inc.

Trevor Bond explained how the deal all started. "It was a long process; we had purchased semen from the bankruptcy trustee to breed our mares. After multiple purchases over a couple years, the trustee approached us in the fall of 2014 and informed us that the courts needed him to close the case. The options for the remaining semen were to sell it or destroy it. We hated the thought of losing his legacy this way, so we began putting together a purchase arrangement. The biggest hurdle was that the bankruptcy was set up that in order to register a foal, breeder's permits had to be purchased in advance, which was just cost prohibitive. That's when the idea of purchasing Chic's papers and breeding rights came up. I contacted Richardson, who had possession of the stallion when he died and offered to purchase his papers and rights. Due to court stipulations, Richardson had the registration papers but didn't have current breeding rights; those were controlled by the court until closure of the case. The purchase was being finalized, when Richardson suddenly passed away in December 2014. Thankfully his daughter honored the deal and we were able to proceed with the purchase. Turns out it's an extensive process to purchase a dead horse."

"We received the registration papers in January 2015," says Tiffany Bond. "That's when the long transfer process began. Although we had the registration papers, no assets - including the transfer of ownership - could be finalized until the closure of the bankruptcy, since the stallion was an asset claimed in the bankruptcy." From the time the bankruptcy was filed in 2009 until closure, the court had custody and control of all assets, which included the registration papers, cloning and breeding rights. Once the bankruptcy was settled and closed, just recently, all ownership rights were transferred to Trevor and Tiffany Bond.

The Bonds confirm that no clone of Smart Chic Olena was ever created, and wish to put those rumors to rest. "We have a letter from VIAGEN, the cloning company, verifying that no clone of Smart Chic Olena exists," asserts Bond.

"VIAGEN did collect tissue for this purpose of Smart Chic Olena, however when the bankruptcy was filed, the cloning process never began. We obtained those rights from the court and now control them.”

As a performance horse himself, Smart Chic Olena, placed 3rd at the 1989 NCHA Super Stakes Open Four Year Old. Purchased by Jim Babcock, Chic earned the AQHA World Champion title in Senior Cutting in 1990, along with the High Point Cutting title. After earning his AQHA Superior award in Cutting, he made the unusual move to the reining arena, and was crowned AQHA World Champion in Senior Reining in 1993, the only horse in history to earn AQHA World Championships in both cutting and reining. In fact, he is the only horse in history to win both the Senior Cutting and Senior Reining at the All American Quarter Horse Congress as well. His lifetime earnings in AQHA, NCHA and NRHA exceed $126,416. He retired to stand at stud in 1994.

As a sire, his record is amazing. The AQHA Leading NRCHA Sire in 2003 and 2006, has offspring who have earned more than 26,000 AQHA points in open, amateur and youth competition, including an AQHA Champion, 17 AQHA World Championship and 31 Reserve World Championship titles. Their combined earnings exceed $12 million. The Bonds are excited to offer breedings to this legendary stallion, available through Select Breeders Services in Aubrey, Texas. They plan to limit the breedings to approximately 25 per year, including donations to select futurity and youth programs.

The first 10 ICSI breedings will be offered at $5,000, with a booking fee of $2,500, then remaining 2016 ICSI breeding's will be a $7,500 stud fee with the same $2,500 booking fee. Limited breedings are available with frozen semen, by private treaty. The breedings carry a live foal guarantee and will be available in both the United States and Europe with Select Breeders Services.

SWRHA TO SHOWCASE LIZ HAVERTY MEMORIAL TROPHY

Attendees at the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show, set for October 20-25 at the Hardy Murphy Coliseum in Ardmore, Oklahoma, will have an opportunity to see the Liz Haverty Memorial Trophy, which will commemorate the High Point Non Pro at the show. That individual will receive a special plaque and a Clint Haverty Handmade Headstall.

Created in memory of a much-loved member of the reining community who passed away early in 2014, the award honors Liz Haverty's passion for the industry. Liz was born Feb. 14, 1951, in Fort Worth and raised by J. Frank Zaner and Gloria Zaner. She and her husband of 37 years, Clint Haverty, owned and operated Haverty Ranch in Krum for 34 years where they raised many world champions in various breeds and NRHA champions.

She was a member of the National Reining Horse Association, American Quarter Horse Association, American Paint Horse Association and the Appaloosa Horse Club and a multiple world champion in equine events.

The trophy, which was created by Marrita Black, is named "Unlimited" and commemorates Liz and Who Whiz It. It is inscribed with the following:

*Everyone is born with unlimited potential
Perseverance can make the impossible possible
So stick to the fight when hardest hit and
When things go wrong, never quit.
Be unlimited.*

The trophy will be displayed during the annual Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity Gunners Special Nite Draw Party on Wednesday October 22.
