TULSA REINING CLASSIC PAYS BIG IN LIMITED AGE EVENTS

Photos by Waltenberry, Inc.

The 2015 Tulsa Reining Classic hosted a variety of limited age events, with each as the main event of the day in the Ford Truck Arena. Throughout the week big checks were presented to the winners, thanks to sponsorships from Cardinal Reining Horses, Turnabout Farm, Whizkey N Diamonds, Hollywoodstinseltown, SmartPak, and Darling 888 Ranch.

Mathieu Buton Sweeps Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity

The Tulsa Reining Classic was dealt a great problem in 2015 – a huge jump in entry numbers in several classes. One of the biggest jumps in entries occurred in the $60,000 added Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity – up 20 horses from 2014!

The big winner of the day was Mathieu Buton, who swept all three levels of the Futurity with Ms Mercedes Whiz. It was a meaningful win for Mathieu and his wife Angelina, who own the horse. “She’s very special. We raised her. I showed her dam several years ago and then we decided to breed her.” He added, “To be here and be able to show her was already very cool, and then to win all three divisions made it a great day!”

The pair marked a 221.5, besting the rest of the field by two points. Buton said that the mare, who’s small in stature, has a big heart. “She did everything I asked for. I know she can do everything really hard. She circled beautiful, turned good, and her stop is definitely what makes the difference with her – she has an incredible way of stopping,” he said. “I could tell she was ready. I felt confident with her so I decided to ask her to step up and she did. Right after I was done showing I took her to the other pen to ride and she was fine. She acted like it was no big deal.”

Buton thanked his wife, friends, family, and customers for all their support.

And while Buton was excited about the money he won – over $23,000 – the Don Leson Classic trophy saddle he received was a highlight. “I am so excited about the Leson – I can’t wait to try it,” he said. “I told myself if it was a trophy saddle I was going to keep it in my house, but after seeing it I’m going to ride in it!”

There was a three-way tie for reserve in the Level 4 between Gabriel Diano and Gunners Special Glo, Tim McQuay and Woodys Toy Gun, and Trevor Dare and Xtra Ruby Step, who each marked 219.5 and won $7,482.

Gunners Special Glo, by Gunners Special Nite out of Paps Last Glo, is owned by ALPHA Quarter Horses LLC of Purcell, Oklahoma.

McQuay and Dare also tied for second in the Level 3, earning an additional $3,004. McQuay’s Woodys Toy Gun, by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Gunner Pearl, is owned by David Silva. Thanks to a partnership with the American Paint Horse Association, Woodys Toy Gun won the high scoring Open Futurity Gist Silversmiths buckle.

Dare and Xtra Ruby Step, by Wimpys Little Step out of HA Ruby N Diamonds, also took reserve in the Level 2, worth an additional $1,470. Xtra Ruby Step is owned by Xtra Quarter Horses.

Dave and Bonnie Silva, who own Hollywoodstinseltown, have been the naming sponsor of the futurity for five years. Hollywoodstinseltown has a royal pedigree. The 2004 palomino stallion is sired by NRHA Six Million Dollar Sire and Hall of Famer Hollywood Dun It and out of NRHA Hall of Fame All-Time Leading Dam, Miss Tinseltown, producer of earners of over $724,000.

Hollywoodstinseltown's first foals began showing in 2012, and the impressive stallion has already produced the 2013 NRHA Open Futurity Reserve Champion, Tinseltown Fly Guy. In three short years, his offspring earnings have topped $339,000. In fact, in the Open Futurity, his get earned over $13,400!

Jessica Keller Wins Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity with Malena Chic Olena

The Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity featured $26,000 in added money, and Jessica Keller and Malena Chic Olena won the Non Pro Level 4 Championship with a 222.5, winning $5,427. The mare, by Hickory Chic Olena out of Malena Chex, was bred and raised by Keller's family. In fact, her mom Tammy Hutton purchased the filly's granddam years ago from Don Murphy.

"I have a sister to her mother that I won the Novice Horse Non Pro World Championship on. Her mother actually got hurt as a three-year-old. We got her back and she wound up winning about $18,000, but she was never able to do what she could have because she got hurt," Keller explained.

Malena Chic Olena is Malena Chex's oldest foal, and has impressed Keller from the start. "I've always been pretty high on and excited about her, so winning this is pretty big," she said.

Sam Smith helped get the 3-year-old ready to show. "I was a complete Non Pro today. Sam got her ready for me and I showed up and rode her a little bit this morning, and then went and showed. I was tickled to death with her whole run. The only thing I would have changed is a little bobble on her right turn, but that was probably pilot error," Keller admitted.

The immediate future plans for Keller and Malena Chic Olena because of a time consuming job. "We just recently opened a thoroughbred breeding operation in Madill, Oklahoma. I know I'll do the Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity since it's just twenty minutes from my house, but I don't know where else we're going to go," she said.

Jessica Keller & Malena Chic Olena

Keller expressed her thanks to Sam Smith and numerous other people. "I definitely thank Sam because he's done a lot of work. I also thank my mom for being so supportive. I thank Doug Gerard, my boyfriend Will Sherwood has been very supportive, and my sister Sarah was here jumping up and down all excited," she said. "Also, Jason Torpey started this mare as a two-year-old and did a very good job and put a good base on her for Sam to continue with. I'm sure I'm forgetting a lot of people but this is a team effort and I appreciate them all."

Keller is a fan of Tulsa, and complimented the facility and staff. "Everything has been great," she said.

Mandy McCutcheon and Paint The Nite (Gunnars Special Nite x Darlins Not Painted) won the reserve title in the Non Pro Level 4, worth $3,303, with a 221.5. The duo also won the special high scoring paint award – a beautiful Gist Silversmiths buckle – that was presented by the American Paint Horse Association.

Non Pro Level 2 & 3 Champion

Chad Clark traveled all the way from Hammond, Wisconsin, to compete in the Non Pro Futurity. Five years ago during the Tulsa Reining Classic Clark approached Whiz N Tag Chex's then-owner, Lance Griffin, to inquire about breeding his mare MM Toostsie Pop. Fast-forward to 2015, and Clark and the product of that cross – Pudding Pop – won the Non Pro Levels 2 and 3. All totaled, he's taking home $5,128.

"Today I was just trying to be really clean and not get into trouble. I've been struggling the last couple years so

Chad Clark & Pudding Pop

Vicki Lambert & Memorable Affair

I really just needed a nice clean run, so I was only shooting for a 210 or 211, but she was so good I was thinking I'd just go a little faster and try a little harder, and she was super," he said.

Clark, a farrier by trade, shared that Pudding Pop is already entered in the NRHA Futurity. "It makes it a lot easier to go there financially," he said with a laugh. "I have no worries from here on out. I'm just going to keep building on what I have. It's really nice to be in the position where I am where I don't need any miraculous changes with my horse. We just need a little steady improvement."

Although Clark has done the majority of training with Pudding Pop, he gave credit to Kim Dierks, who started the mare. "Kim got her going well. She did all the hard work and did an excellent job. If I could afford to leave her there through her three-year-old year I would," he said.

He voiced appreciation for the Tulsa Reining Classic, saying, "I love this show. It's really good. The facility is fantastic. You can always find somewhere that's not crowded to ride. It's beautiful and the staff knows what they're doing and it goes fast. We timed the drags and they only took three minutes!"

There was a three-way tie for second in the Level 3 between Heather Weisz, Victoria Lambert, and Lindsey McCutcheon. Each won $1,243 for the score of 213. Weisz rode Fille Code (Electric Code x Smartest Sister), McCutcheon rode Dunit Special Nite (Gunnars Special Nite x Laceups), and Lambert exhibited Cromed Out Affair.

Weisz and Lambert also tied for the Level 2 reserve championship.

Prime Time Champion

For Victoria Lambert, the blue-hen mare Memorable Affair is truly unforgettable. Having amassed more than $130,000 in lifetime earnings, she continued with a successful career as a broodmare, and produced the high selling prospect at the NRHA Futurity Sale in 2012.

Lambert eventually sold the mare to Silver Spurs Equine, but still has a handful of the mare's talented offspring to compete off of. "Mable (Memorable Affair) is my all-time favorite horse. I was very sad but very happy when they bought her because I knew they would take excellent care of her," she said. "And we still have some babies, including two 2-year-olds of hers back home."

She topped the division on Cromed Out Affair and tied for second on Twisted Affair – both are Mable babies.

Cromed Out Affair, by Cromed Out Mercedes, marked a 213. "I was told by my trainer to just lope through and have fun and be quiet on him," Lambert said of the colt, who is coming off of a Non Pro Level 2 win at the Rocky Mountain Reining Horse Association Futurity. "We are trying to get ready for Oklahoma and just wanted to make sure he would continue to be the solid citizen he has already shown to be, and he was spectacular. It was the first time to show for Twisted Affair (by Dun It With A Twist), so I was pleased to come here and do well on both of them."

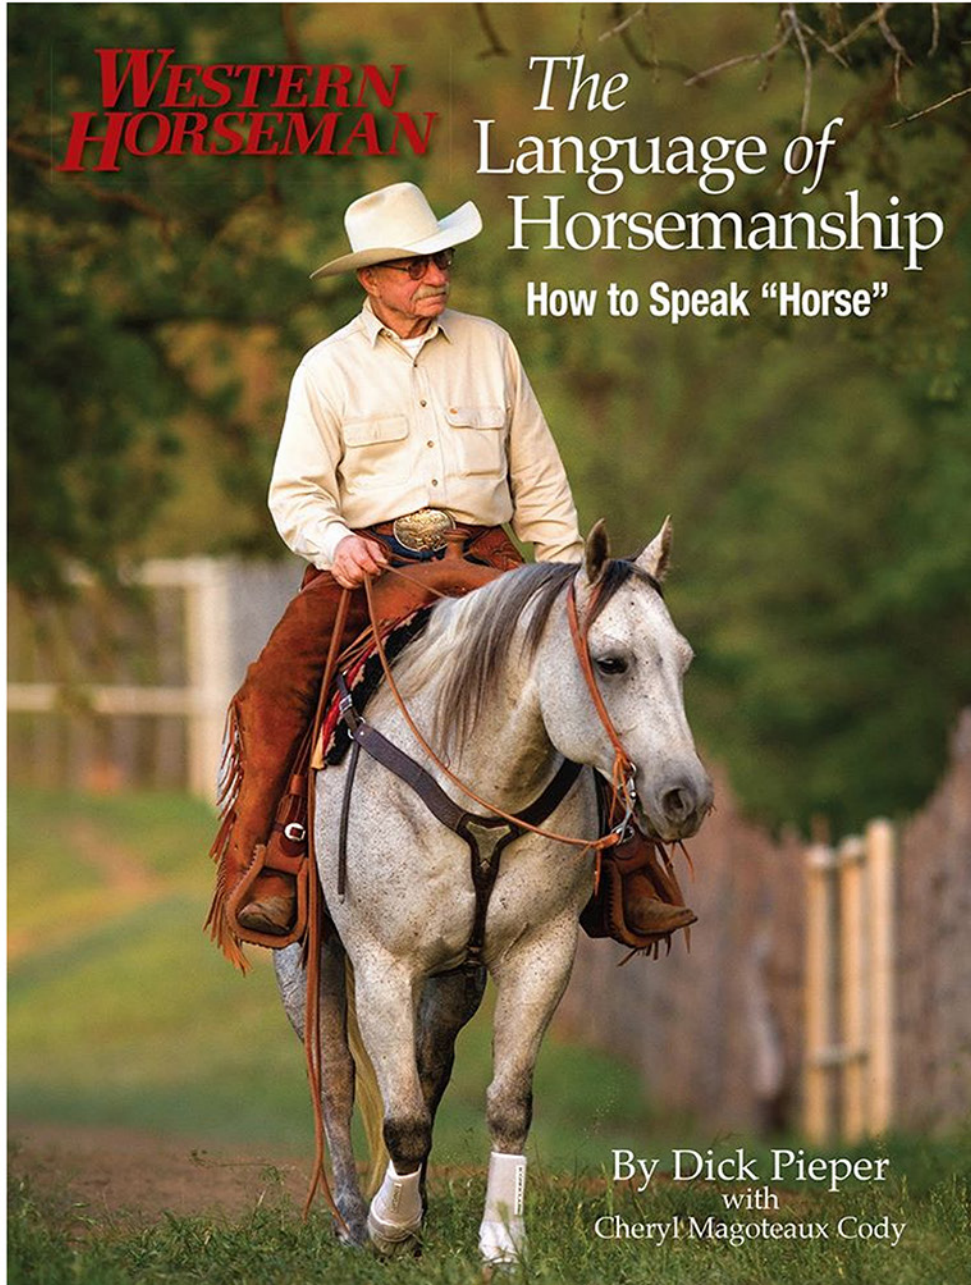

Both of her horses are started at home. "Sah Anderson is our trainer at home. He starts all of our two-year-olds and then Yonathon Baruch takes them. Sah and Yonathon worked together for years at Craig Schmersal's, and they work really well together," she said.

She added, "I love this show. The facility is wonderful, the footing is great, and they really work hard to make it a schedule that makes it fun."

Tamra Kyle and KR Red Tag Special (Gunnars Special Nite x Go Red Pine) split second with Lambert, and placed in the top ten of Levels 2 and 3.

From the jumper arena to the reining pen, Turnabout Farm has fielded international stars, winning gold medals at the Olympics, World Equestrian Games, and FEI World Reining Finals. Turnabout Farm stands the outstanding stallion Gunnars Special Nite, a top-performing son of the late, great Gunner. Turnabout Farm is a long-time supporter of the Tulsa Reining Classic, and has sponsored the futurity for several years.

Tom McCutcheon and The Wizter Win Cardinal Reining Horses Open Derby

Because of a great sponsorship from Cardinal Reining Horses, the Open Derby featured $33,000 added money, and every exhibitor entered received a signature Cardinal Reining Horses jacket. Several of the entries competing in the Derby had the chance at an additional $10,000 in added money in the Whizkey N Diamonds Novice Horse Derby, thanks to a partnership with Rhodes River Ranch.

Level 4 Open Champion

Early in the day, Tom McCutcheon and The Wizter posted a 224, taking the lead of the division. That meant he had to sweat through forty more horses. In the end, the score held, and McCutcheon and the 5-year-old gelding won the Cardinal Reining Horses Derby Championship and a check for $8,003.

Last on the ground, McCutcheon knew there wouldn't be any fresh dirt available for the first run-down. Still, he was confident in his horse's ability. "He's such a big stopper that I just decided not to look for the ground and just run right through the middle of it and say whoa. That's what I did and he was perfect," he said.

From maneuver to maneuver The Wizter did what his rider wanted. "He was with me the whole time. Every maneuver was good and he did what I asked. He's just a great little horse," McCutcheon said.

With the NRHA Million Dollar Rider at the reins, The Wizter has amassed top finishes at many major events. "He's been very consistent. Warming up for me he was good. I had a feeling it was going to be fun today because he was really hooked up," he said.

The Wizter, by Gallo Del Cielo out of Miss Whizard Jac, is owned by Sarah Willeman of Turnabout Farm. Turnabout

Farm sponsored the Non Pro Futurity earlier in the week, and Willeman is a long-time customer of McCutcheon.

"Sarah is an amazing owner. She owns Gunners Special Nite and he had an amazing show. There was a Gunner Special Nite that was reserve in the Non Pro futurity and one that was reserve in the Open, and they've won a lot of money at this event. Then, with this horse winning today, they've really had a great event," he said.

McCutcheon added that winning the Cardinal Reining Horses Derby was special because of his friendship with John Marcos. "He's been a customer of mine for a while so it was fun for me to win this Derby he sponsored. It was great and I appreciate him," he said.

Nathan Piper and Gunnin For Chics and Jason Vanlandingham and Not Ruf At All tied for reserve in the Level 4 with a 222.5. Gunnin For Chics (Colonels Smoking Gun x Dun It By Chick), is owned by Mark Bradford, while Not Ruf At All (A Sparkling Vintage x All Ruffed Up) is owned by Vaughn Zimmerman.

Level 3 Open and Whizkey N Diamonds Novice Horse Derby Champion

A runoff determined the Championship of Whizkey N Diamonds Novice Horse Derby. Dan Huss and Chics Dream and Gabe Hutchins and Surprise Im A Chic battled it out, but in the end Huss and Chics Dream finished with the Championship.

Huss and Chics Dream, by Magnum Chic Dream and out of First Ex Flame, also won the Level 3 division.

Chics Dream has had a busy week. Just days ago he made the finals at the American Quarter Horse Association Select World Championship Show with his owner Morris Kulmer. "They won the preliminary round but had a little trouble in the finals. They still finished in the top ten I think,” Huss said. “Then he loaded in the trailer and came here. We gave him a couple days off, rode him a day, and then we showed.”

The trip didn’t seem to affect Chics Dream, as he marked a 220.5. “I wanted to be aggressive with him and wanted him to run, and he ran really well. He did a good job.”

Then it was time for the run-off. “I trusted him a little more but didn’t go quite as fast. The score would have been the same if I had stayed out of the penalty box,” Huss recalled.

Next up for Chics Dream is another road trip – this time to Sin City. “Morris will show him in the Non Pro at Vegas, and then we’ll take him to some smaller events and then show him in the derbies next year,” he said.

Huss traveled over eighteen hours to compete in Tulsa. “They always have the ground right and the arenas are super,” he said. “It’s a long drive but because of the facility and great management and stuff it’s hard not to come.”

Huss also tied for reserve in the Level 3 on MsDreamy with Tim McQuay and Guns R For Shootin. MsDreamy (Magnum Chic Dream x A Gal With A Gun) is owned by Melissa and Robert Shearer while Guns R For Shootin (Colonels Smoking Gun x Chelsea Lena) is owned by Ryan Humphrey.

Gabe Hutchins and Surprise Im A Chick (Jerry Lees Surprise x DRF Smart Chic) aren’t leaving Tulsa empty handed. They picked up $2,284 for the Novice Horse reserve title and $1,449 for an eighth place tie in the Level 4.

Level 2 Derby Champion

Patti Brownshadel rode her stallion Magnetised to a score of 219 to win the Open Level 2, tied for fourth in the Novice Horse Derby, and tie for fifth in the Level 3. All totaled, Brownshadel and the 4-year-old stallion won over $4,300.

Magnetised is the third generation of a special line of stallions. His grandsire, NRHA $3 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream, was Brownshadel’s first futurity horse, and she owns his sire Im The Chic Magnet.

“It’s like déjà vu. He’s so much like his daddy and granddaddy. He’s so easy to train and show and he’s so balanced – just like them,” she said.

For Magnetised, the Tulsa Reining Classic was just like a typical day at home. “It’s like he doesn’t even know he’s been shown. He comes in the arena and does his job just like I ask him to. Every time I’ve shown him he’s been the same way,” she said.

Brownshadel, of Hempstead, Texas, shared that Magnetised is probably done showing for the year. “I’ll just do some schooling stuff and get him ready for the NRBC and Derby next year.” She added, “Hopefully we will be here again next year. This show is amazing. It’s ten hours away from my home and that’s the only negative about it. There’s not a better set of pens. The show management runs it for exhibitors and you can tell.”

Mike Florida and Mercedes Stunt Man (Cromed Out Mercedes x Hollywood Stunt Girl) finished second in the Level 2 with a 218.5, collecting $928. Mercedes Stunt Man is owned by Mary Howard of Sunbury, Ohio.

Cardinal Reining Horses, located in Aubrey, Texas, is owned by Joao Marcos, who purchased the facility in the summer of 2013.

The facility features the largest private covered arena in the world, a first class show barn, over 200 stalls and a state-of-the-art breeding facility. Cardinal Reining Horses is breeding top-level equine athletes thanks to an outstanding collection of broodmares.

Rhodes River Ranch is dedicated to breeding, raising and training future world champion performance horses and providing customers with top quality services. Located at the foothills of the Cascades, the ranch is just an hour and a half north of Seattle-Tacoma International Airport in beautiful Arlington, Washington.

Rhodes River Ranch is focused on raising and training exceptional reining, cutting horses and reined cowhorses, and is committed to providing great show prospects.

McCutcheon Claims SmartPak Non Pro Derby Championship

The 75-entry SmartPak Non Pro Derby featured $25,000 in added money, and Mandy McCutcheon and Ms Whiz Dunit won the Non Pro Level 4 Championship.

McCutcheon and the 5-year-old mare marked a 221 to win the class and a check for $5,324. The win catapulted Ms Whiz Dunit over the $100,000 mark in earnings, made up of wins from several prestigious events, including the NRHA Futurity, the NRBC, the SWRHA Futurity, and more.

“She’s really pretty simple to show and doesn’t give me any grief,” McCutcheon said of the mare, by Topsail Whiz out of A Bueno Poco Dunit. “She was really good today and this win put her over $100,000, so we're really, really happy."

Mandy McCutcheon & Ms Whiz Dunit

Ellen Lloyd Cummins & Dunit The Gunner Way

McCutcheon voiced her appreciation of SmartPak, the naming sponsor. "They're the best. I can't say enough good things about their products. They're also great sponsors of all the events we go to." She added, "I'll even go to hunter events with my mom (Colleen McQuay) and SmartPak will be there as a sponsor. They're everywhere and I appreciate how much they support the industry."

McCutcheon's son Cade and Custom Made Gun tied for Reserve. She admitted that there is a little bit of competition between the two of them. "Well, showing against him lately has been a pain-in-the-butt! I haven't beat him since last fall, so it was about time for me to get my act together," she said with a laugh.

Thanks to a partnership with the NRHA, the highest scoring registered paint in the Non Pro Level 4 and the Novice Horse Non Pro each received special Gist Silversmiths buckles. This time, both McCutcheons won, with Mandy taking home the Novice Horse buckle on My Darlin Tonite and Cade and Custom Made Dun receiving the Level 4 buckle.

Both Cade and Jack Medows who rode Spooks Smoken Wimpy marked 220, each pocketing $2,835. Custom Made Gun (Colonels Smoking Gun x Custom Made Dunit) is owned by McQuay Stables.

Mandy and My Darlin Tonite (Gunnars Special Nite x Darlins Not Painted) finished fourth in the Level 4 and won the Novice Horse division with a 219. My Darlin Tonite is owned by McQuay Stables.

Non Pro Levels 2, 3, and Prime Time

It's been a few years since Ellen Lloyd Cummins and her daughter were showing at Tulsa, in the running for the Rookie of the Year. Since then, she's been on the lookout for the right horse, and after winning three divisions of the SmartPak Non Pro Derby, it's apparent she's found him.

Cummins and her horse Dunit The Gunner Way marked a 218.5 to win Levels 2, 3, and Prime Time, and finish fifth in the Level 4, resulting in a $6,591.

"Oh my goodness I'm so excited," she said during the awards ceremony. "I was crying before the last stop. She's an amazing mare and I just love her. I thank Sebastian and Melanie Petroll because they've been great helping me work through everything and helping me believe that I could do it."

Cummins has had her eye on the 5-year-old, by Colonels Smoking Gun out of Dun It The Hard Way, since she finished second at this year's NRBC with Kelle Smith. "We got wind that Kelly might sell her after the NRBC, and we got lucky by being at the right place at the right time," she said. "You never know if a horse and rider combination will work, but Sebastian knew from the beginning that we would work, and he was right."

Next up is the High Roller Classic. "She has her whole six-year-old year left next year, so we're going to go back to the NRBC," she said.

Second in the Level 3 went to Shelly Hartmann and Mistresses Milky Way (Chocolate Chic Olena x Shiners Mistress) with a 217.5. The pair won $1,494.

Katsy Leeman and Footwork Revolution (Einstein's Revolution x DS Fancy Footwork) won reserve in the Level 2 with a 217, worth $815.

In the Non Pro Prime Time division, David Silva and Chex From A Star (Colonels Smoking Gun x Chex From Hollywood) won second with a 219 (includes Prime Time handicap). The reserve title resulted in a $467 check.

From the feed room to the tack room, SmartPak offers innovative solutions to help riders take great care of their horses. SmartPak was founded in 1999 with the introduction of the patented SmartPak supplement feeding system. The revolutionary, daily dose SmartPaks are custom-made for your horse, individually labeled and sealed for freshness.

Xtra Taris Voodoo and Thiago Boechat Win Darling 888 Developing Horse Futurity

This year marks the fifth anniversary of the creation of the Developing Horse Futurity at Tulsa. The Developing Horse Futurity was created with the goal of allowing reining horses to develop and perform at their own pace. As entries increase each year, it's evident that the reining industry has embraced the concept. Since 2013, the Darling 888 Ranch of Princeton, Kentucky, has been the naming sponsor of the class.

Open Level 4 Champion

There were 87 entries that competed in the Developing Horse Futurity, and Thiago Boechat and Xtra Taris Voodoo bested the field with a 220.5 to win $4,097, a Lawson bronze, a saddle from the Tulsa Reining Classic, and a gift card from Santa Cruz Animal Health.

The mare is special to the crew of Xtra Quarter Horses, who bred, raised, and still own the 3-year-old mare by Shiners Voodoo Dr out of All That's Dun. "We're pretty proud of her and the program," Boechat said. "I rode her sire and made the Futurity finals, and then Todd Bergen won Reserve at the NRHA Derby. We bred him as a 4-year-old and this mare is from his first foal crop. There are a lot of similarities between him and her. He passes a lot of him along."

Boechat, head trainer of Xtra Quarter Horses, is a Tulsa veteran. "I think this is one of the best places to take a futurity horse," he said. "It's such a good pen, and it's a good time of year. You can get them ready and if you feel like they still need some work you have time to get them ready for Oklahoma City."

Taking the Reserve Championship in the Open Level 4 was Dean Brown, who rode Sparkys Shining Doll (Friday Night Shiner x BB Holly Doll) for Robert Santagata of Campbell Hall, New York. The Reserve title, won with a 218.5, came with a check for $2,493.

Thiago Boechat & Xtra Taris Voodoo

Fred Thomsson & Missin My Shine

Open Levels 2 & 3 Champion

Finishing third in the Level 4 and taking the win in Open Levels 2 and 3 was Fred Thomsson on Missin My Shine, by Smart And Shiney out of Miss Sliding Peppy. The pair scored a 218 that was good for a $5,892 payday, as well as two Lawson bronzes, a Back On Track sheet and No Bow Wraps, and gift certificates to Santa Cruz Animal Health and Cowboy Couture.

Thomsson has been riding the mare since December of 2014. "She's a really nice mare. She's strong mentally and really talented. She's got a big stop and has been good to train all year. She showed really well here," he said. "Our run today was good. She turned good and circled perfect. She stopped great the first two times. The last stop I probably let off a little bit, and she still stopped but not as good as the first two."

Yonathon Baruch piloted Baddabing Baddaboom to the reserve title in the Open Level 3, winning $1,411. Baddabing Baddaboom (Boom Shernic x Chics Hilda Bar) is owned by Carlton Crowe of Gainesville, Texas.

Pierre Luc Phaneuf and Whiz Ann Tag took reserve in the Open Level 2, pocketing $1,036. Whiz Ann Tag (Whix N Tag Chex x Mifs Doll) is owned by Cardinal Hill Training of Aubrey, Texas.

Open Level 1 Champion

With a 215.5, Justin Michels claimed the Open Level 1 Championship and a top five finish of both Open Levels 2 and 3 on Cromed Out Gunner, worth $2,115. He also won a Morrison trophy, a headstall, No Bow Wraps from Back On Track, and a gift certificate from Cowboy Couture.

"He's pretty laid back and nice," Michels said of Cromed Out Gunner (Cromed Out Mercedes x Smoking Gypsy Rose). "He can turn. He's really come into his own circling and was really good and relaxed today."

It's the second event for the colt, who is coming off of a good finish in Minnesota. "He's done showing for the week. This gives me so much confidence as we get ready for the Futurity.” He added, “We’re entered at the Congress and then he’ll have a break, and then hopefully he’ll be ready for the futurity.”

It’s the first time that Michel has come to Tulsa, but he plans to make it an annual event. “I’m really excited. It’s been great and I haven’t had one thing bad to say,” he said.

“I’ll definitely come back again.”

Vanessa Strotmann had a great day in Tulsa, taking Reserve in the Open Level 1 with a 215 on Nu Smoking Spark (Ima Smoking Mister x Annies Lil Spark), owned by Shannon Reid. She also tied for third on Lil Sis Isa Legend (Custom Legend x Topnotch Melody) and Tinsel Town Light (Hollywoodstinseltown x Shiney O Light) with scores of 214. Lil Sis Isa Legend is owned by Kalyn Sanders, while Tinsel Town Light is owned by Shannon and Hershel Reid.

The APHA presented the high-scoring paint horse of the Darling 888 Ranch Developing Horse Futurity with a Gist Silversmiths buckle. APHA Director of Business Development Kalyn Sanders was on hand to present the award, which was won by Chics Nite, ridden by Franco Bertolani for Cardinal Hill Training.

The 240 acre Darling 888 Ranch is located in Princeton, Kentucky, about ninety minutes from Nashville, Tennessee. The ranch is a full service reining facility offering training, breeding, sales and equine sports medicine. Darling 888 Ranch supports the development of reining horses at their own pace, protecting horses that will peak later performance-wise, and lengthening their careers.

TULSA REINING CLASSIC HOSTS SOUTH CENTRAL AFFILIATE REGIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS AND NRHA CLASSES

Held at Expo Square at the Tulsa State Fairgrounds, the event has hosted the South Central Affiliate Regional Championships for eleven years.

Days 1&2 - NRHA Open Champion

With a score of 143.5, Sebastian Petroll and Magnalicious claimed the $1,000 Added Open ancillary class on Tuesday. The class was run concurrently with the Intermediate Open, Limited Open, and Rookie Professional classes.

Magnalicious is by NRHA $3 Million Sire Magnum Chic Dream and out of Pines Nifty Doll. Magnalicious is owned by Brad Lieblong of Jonesboro, Arkansas. “We just bought her. We really liked her at Katy and have been working really hard with her. We think by next year she’ll be really good,” Petroll said. “She’s very good minded. She has a lot of turn and is a real complete horse.”

NRHA Intermediate Open Champion

Michael Davis piloted Cross Step Wrangler, by Starlights Wrangler out of Hollywood Two Step, to a 141 to secure the lead of the Intermediate Open and second in the Open. Cross Step Wrangler is owned by Emily Morris of Davenport, Iowa.

Tied for second were Brent Loseke and Chic Out This Gun with Roger Barral with Manhattan Chic. Chic Out This Gun (Chicoutmyblingbling x Footworks Gotta Gun) is owned by Karolyn Kennedy of Gainesville, Texas. Manhattan Chic (Smart Chic Olena x This Chex On Top) is owned by Francisco Ayres Lopes of Gordonville, Texas.

NRHA Limited Open Champion

Josefine Spangfors had a great first day at Tulsa. Riding Shiners Banjo, owned by her father’s company Euro Vets Inc., she won the Limited Open. The pair marked a 138.5.

“Shiners Banjo is a 6-year-old that I’ve owned for two years,” she said. Following the class, Spangfors was seen toting around her small chihuahua. “I bring him to all the shows. He’s my lucky charm.”

Although it’s Shiners Banjo’s first time to compete in Tulsa, Spangfors is a veteran of the event. “I just love this place. It has so many arenas and it’s such a nice place to show,” she said. Now she has her eyes set on Friday, when she and Shiners Banjo will compete for a title in the Affiliate Regional Championships.

There was a tie for second between Lorenzo Concarella who rode Tinseltowns Pearl and Rafael Celeste with Paparazzi Princess. Tinseltowns Pearl (Hollywoodstinseltown x Gunners Pearl) is owned by Janine Inmon of Midlothian, Texas, while Paparazzi Princess (Gallo Del Cielo x Princess In Diamonds) is owned by Gabriel Diano of Purcell, Oklahoma.

NRHA Rookie Professional Champion

In his first time to ever compete at Tulsa, Milo Kurucz won the Rookie Professional on Wimpys Little Gal. Riding for Rosanne Sternberg of Aubrey, Texas, Kurucz marked a 141.5 on the mare by Wimpys Little Step out of My Topsail Gal.

"I thank Rosanne for the opportunity to show this mare," Karucz said of the 8-year-old mare. "This is only our second show. I've just ridden her a couple months, because she just got back from Europe."

So far, Karucz is impressed with Tulsa. "It's a pretty cool show. I love it. There are great horses and riders and it's a great opportunity," he said.

Lars Mortenson and A Gran Torino (Colonels Smoking Gun x Shiners Crystal) finished second in the Rookie Professional. A Gran Torino is owned by William Rivera of Houston, Texas.

NRHA Rookie Level 1 & 2 Champion

With dual wins in Rookie Levels 1 and 2, Jennifer Greenleaf is excited about her chance at a spot in the National Affiliate Championships when she competes Friday in the Affiliate Regional Championships. "Winning this class gives me a lot of confidence going into Friday's class," she said. "So hopefully we'll make it to Oklahoma City."

Greenleaf and her horse, Dun Git A Nicadual, marked a 142.5 to win the class. "Everything just went smoothly and easy. My last two days of riding didn't feel perfect and then today, before I went in, Tom (McCutcheon) told me to cowgirl up." She added, "I did and it worked!"

The Aubrey, Texas, Non Pro has owned the Mister Nicadual gelding, out of Gotta Git Ya Dun, for six months. As she was presented with her awards, she shared how much she enjoys the flashy palomino. "He's the best horse in the world. Tom showed him a lot in the past and had a lot of success. He's got lots of personality and is perfect," she said. "He's taught me everything I know, and I am very lucky to own him."

Nancy Currie took reserve in the Rookie Level 1 and Prime Time Rookie with a 140.5 on her horse, Dun Playin Tag. Dun Playin Tag is by Whiz N Tag Chex out of Brennas Dunit Fancy.

NRHA Prime Time Rookie Champion

Placing reserve in the Rookie Level 2 and finishing as Champion of the Prime Time Rookie was Todd Holbrook, of Stillwater, Oklahoma. Holbrook rode his 8-year-old gelding A Juicy Chex to a 142. "I've been competing here at Tulsa for six or seven years, but this is my first time to win a class," he said. "My horse rode really well today; it was probably the best he's done."

Holbrook credited his trainer, Sam Smith, for his success. "Sam works with me, my wife, and my daughter. He's really good to work with. He's honest and encouraging but tough when needed.

AQHA All Age Reining Champion

A win in the AQHA All Age Reining at Tulsa almost guarantees a spot at the 2016 American Quarter Horse Association World Championship Show. So after winning the two-day class, Stoptown and Dell Hendricks will likely be taking a trip to Oklahoma City next year. Stoptown is a 2012 stallion owned by Douglas Van Rees.

"I've been riding him since the Derby. Ruben actually trained him and then asked me if I would take over at the Derby," Hendricks said. "This is my first horse to ride for Doug. He was pretty good in this class, and I'll show him again in the futurity later this week."

Another Gunner Nite, a horse Dell owns with his wife Terri, won second in the class with Parker Wurst.

Day 3 - Green Reiner Champion

Riding a horse she's only owned for six months, Courtney Battison won both of her classes Wednesday. She and her horse Wimpys Wrangler AC scored a 70.5 to top the classes. "He was really good today," Battison, of Purcell, Oklahoma, said. "He was on point."

With trainer Marie Kleiner, Wimpys Wrangler AC won the Open Level 1 division at this year's National Reining Breeders Classic in Katy, Texas. "He's a neat horse. He hasn't been shown a whole lot, so we're just learning to do the whole reining thing together," said Battison, who has had an extremely successful career riding hunter under saddle horses. "This is my first year to compete in reining. I'm brand new to it. I have hunter under saddle horses and have showed them for many years but I have always loved the reining."

Battison said, "Thank you to Marie. She did an excellent job helping me get ready today."

Finishing reserve in both classes was Anna Rickertsen and her horse Chrome Satin Skirt, who scored a 70. Chrome Satin Skirt is by Custom King Cutter and out of High Slit Skirt.

Day 4 - ARC and NRHA Novice Horse Open Levels 1 & 2 Champion

With a score of 73, Sterling Slempe rode Sheza Little Wimpy to claim the Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2 Affiliate Regional Championships, and first place in the ancillary Novice Horse Open Levels 1 and 2. "She was good. She didn't have any big bobbles, turned hard, and stopped good,” Slem্প said.

He began riding Sheza Little Wimpy, nicknamed Daisy, about a year ago. He and owner Barb Matteson were trying to find a new Non Pro horse. “We were looking for a new horse for Barb to show, and we found her,” he explained. “She’s won several thousand this year already. I think Barb is going to show her at Kansas next week in the Green Reiner class, and then I’ll show at the affiliate championships in Oklahoma City.”

Matteson, of Hallsville, Missouri, was on hand for the awards. “I’m incredibly excited,” she said. “I ride her all the time and love her dearly. She’s very easy to ride – very pleasant – and takes care of me.”

When asked about her trainer, Matteson said, “I wouldn’t be here if it wasn’t for Sterling. He’s done amazing things with this mare and has helped me so much with my riding and is probably the best trainer I have ever known in my life.”

Slem্প is a Tulsa regular, and said, “I love this show. It’s fun. The competition is always good and the facility is good and it’s a great place for a horse show.”

And although she’s not showing here this week, when asked if she would in 2016, Matteson said, “You better believe it!”

The Reserve Championship in the Novice Horse Open Level 1 Affiliate Regional class went to Bobby Avila Jr. and Whiz N Tivito (Tivotos Sugar Bar x Ms Gee Whiz). Whiz N Tivito is owned by Bret Kuhns.

The Novice Horse Open Level 2 Affiliate Regional reserve title was won by Steve Archer and Chics Silver Gun (Smart Chic Olena x Playin Little Lady). Chics Silver Gun is owned by Anne Roy.

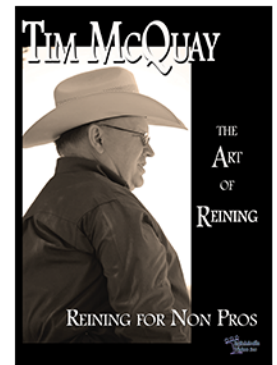

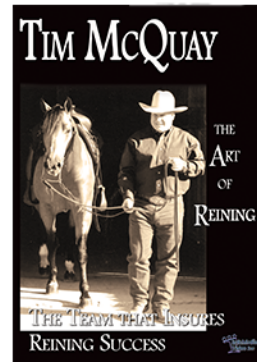

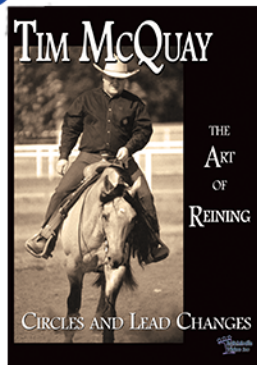

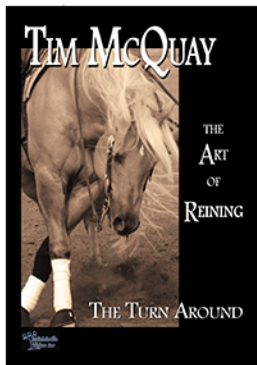

Jamie Bissell won the Reserve title in both of the Novice Horse Open ancillary classes – but on different horses! In the Level 1 he rode Who Dat Hot Chic (Wimpys Little Step x Smart Chic Aloha), owned by Lisa Bissell. For the Level 2 he rode DP Gunnaoutshineya (Gunnatrashya x Out Shinin Wimpy), owned by Dorminy Plantation.

NRHA Non Pro, Int. Non Pro, and Prime Time Non Pro Co-Champions

The NRHA Non Pro class winner was decided in exciting run-off fashion, with Lindsey McCutcheon and Kyla Myers squaring off after each posted a 144 in the class. Originally there was a three-way tie for first with Catherine Crandon, but she elected to not participate in the runoff.

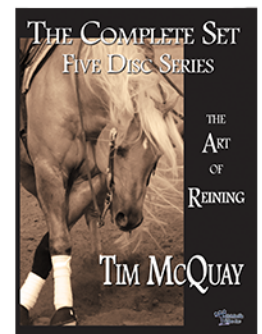

Myers went first on her horse Painted Pony Whiz, and set the bar high with a 143. Next up was McCutcheon and Mega Watt Shine, who managed to mark another 144.

“My first run I had a little bit of an error and asked him to change leads harder than I should have, and you don’t have to do that on him. It got him a little up, but it was completely my fault,” McCutcheon said. “Coming back for the runoff I really wanted to just lope him through, but then my competitive side came through and I was just like ‘Ok buddy, let’s do this again. You can do it!’”

Lindsey’s parents Scott and Kathy McCutcheon purchased Mega Watt Shine, by Marthas Mega Jac out of Bella Della, as a yearling. Scott showed the gelding as a futurity horse and made the NRHA Futurity finals. After that Lindsey took over the reins.

“He’s eight now. I’ve been showing him in the non pro stuff and he is absolutely the most fun horse to show. Every time he does the same thing and he’s always good,” she said.

But Myers and Crandon didn’t leave the arena void of a first place finish. The two split the Non Pro reserve championship and the Intermediate Non Pro title, Kyla won the Limited Non Pro, and Crandon finished first in the Prime Time Non Pro and the USA Reining Amateur.

Kyla, a college sophomore, hasn’t ridden Painted Pony Whiz, by Topsail Whiz out of Ellys Rebel Pride, since early August. “This was actually my first run of the day, so it was really nerve-wracking to get on and see how he was going to be. We’ve done a lot of modifying him to how I ride and working on how we can work together as a team,” she said.

As for the run-off, Myers’ plan was simple. “I didn’t really have a strategy for it, other than to stay out of the penalty box and have fun.”

Painted Pony Whiz was purchased from Tom and Mandy McCutcheon last spring. “He’s honestly just a really sweet gelding. He’s got a good temper, he tries hard, and he’s very easy to work with,” she said.

She mentioned several people she appreciated, “I thank both my parents, all the people in my barn, Teresa Goforth, Terry Green, and I give a very big thank you to Terry Thompson.”

Crandon, of Ocala, Florida, rode Cache Of Jewels in the classes. All totaled, she pocketed $780. Cache Of Jewels is by Conquistador Whiz and out of Jewels Lil Sparkle.

Day 5

While growing pains can prove difficult, a horse show will always welcome them. Huge growth throughout the NRHA and Affiliate Regional Champion classes meant the show management team had to get creative. The second class of the day was moved to the Super Duty Arena.

With the change, the show day ended by 4:30pm, instead of 10pm as it would have been without the change. That allowed everyone to rest up before the 114-entry Hollywoodstinseltown Open Futurity.

“It’s our job as management to react to the increased entry numbers and adjust the schedule to maintain the integrity and comfort of the event,” said Colleen McQuay of the Global Reining Sports Group. “Fortunately we were somewhat prepared for this situation and had reserved the extra arena for the weekend. We thank the exhibitors and staff for being so accommodating to this change. Long show days trickle down and become a problem for the next day’s schooling, so this seemed to make people happy.”

Open Affiliate Co-Champion

It was a big day for Affiliate Regional Championship classes, with six qualifying classes running concurrently with the ancillary classes. NRHA representatives Megan Lundquist and Liz Kelsey were on hand to present the awards.

Steve Archer and Kicks And Giggles tied for the Open Affiliate Championship and reserve in the ancillary Open with Sterling Slemph and Sheza Little Wimpy with scores of 143.5.

Kicks And Giggles’ owner David Barr was on-hand to receive the awards. He purchased Kicks And Giggles, by Lenas Wright On out of Mexikali, from Brian Bell who works out of Cardinal Ranch. “I had another horse before this that was a little rough to ride, but this one is really smooth,” he said. So far Barr hasn’t had the opportunity to show the gelding.

“Steve doesn’t want to share him!” he said with a laugh. “I’ve known Steve since 1988, and he is a phenomenal trainer. I am excited for him to show him at Oklahoma City.”

Open & Int. Open Affiliate Co-Champion

Sterling Slemph and Sheza Little Wimpy, owned by Barb Matteson, won the Open and Intermediate Open ancillary classes earlier in the week, and returned to win a variety of classes to kick off the weekend. Along with the co-championship of the Open Affiliate and co-reserve title in the Open ancillary, the duo also won the Intermediate Open Affiliate and ancillary divisions.

"She was good today. We kinda bobbled one stop but other than that she showed like a trooper," he said. "You could probably say Barb is excited."

Slemph noted that Barb will possibly be showing Sheza Little Wimpy next week. "If she doesn't chicken out she'll be showing her in Kansas," he said.

Gabe Hutchins and This Gun Dont Spook won the $3,000 added ancillary Open with a 144.5. This Gun Dont Spook, owned by Kelsey Larkin, is by Smart Spook out of Gunners Watch.

Ltd. Open Affiliate Champion & Rookie Professional Affiliate Co-Champion

Lorenzo Concarella piloted Tinseltowns Pearl to the Limited Open Affiliate Championship and tied for the Rookie Pro Affiliate title, and also qualified for the National Affiliate Championships in both the Open and Intermediate Open divisions.

"My horse did awesome. She did really well. I'm proud of her because she tried to do everything I asked," Concarella said. Tinseltowns Pearl, owned by Janine Inmon, is by Hollywoodstinseltown out of Gunners Pearl. "She is a really honest horse and tries her best."

Concarella, who hails from Italy, works as an assistant trainer to Jared Leclair. "I'm proud to work for him. Without his help I would not be doing as well as I am," he said.

Massimo Tallone won second in the Limited Open affiliate class on Hangten In Wrangler, owned by Amanda Tallone. Hangten In Wrangler is by Starlights Wrangler out of Hangten Freckles.

Rookie Professional Affiliate Co-Champion

Riding for Martha Moore of Alvin, Texas, Michael Cross piloted Wimpys My Commander to the Rookie Professional Co-Championship. Cross has been riding the 8-year-old Wimpys Little Step gelding, out of Shez My Commander, all year. "He's done really well. He did good today. We had a little bobble on our second stop, but he did pretty well," he said.

Milo Kurucz won the Limited Open and Rookie Professional on Tuesday, and repeated the feat on Friday evening. Kurucz was riding Wimpys Little Gal, owned by Rosanne Sternberg of Aubrey, Texas. Wimpys Little Gal is by Wimpys Little Step out of My Topsail Gal.

Rookie Levels 1 & 2 Affiliate Champion

She's just been riding reiners for two years, but Anna-beth Payne has punched her ticket to the National Affiliate Championships. She won Rookie Levels 1 and 2 on her horse Chexamillion with a 142.5. "I rode hunt seat for a while and then just trail rode, but the first time I stopped a reiner I was hooked,” she said.

She purchased the 9-year-old gelding in January from Tammy Hutton and Sarah Locker of Hilldale Farm. “He’s been an awesome first rookie youth horse,” she said. “He’s an awesome stopper and turner and he’s been great to learn on.”

It’s the first time to show at Tulsa, but the 17-year-old high school senior is a fan. “It’s an amazing facility and the staff is incredible.” She added, “I will show again in the youth affiliate on Sunday.”

Jennifer Greenleaf and Dun Git A Nicadual (Mister Nicadual x Gotta Git Ya Dun) took reserve in both levels of the affiliate championships and won both levels of the ancillary Rookie.

Prime Time Rookie Ancillary Champion

Dean Spence entered the Prime Time Rookie, as well as the ancillary and Regional Championships for both Rookie Levels 1 and 2 – FIVE classes! With a score of 140 on his horse Custom Banjo he placed in the top five of every class and won the Prime Time Rookie!

“Well, I haven’t had good luck in this arena but today I felt good when I came in and knew what I was going to do. My horse also did just what he needed to and it was good,” he said. “I ride with Casey Deary and he and his people have been working with me. They’re the reason I’m winning – not me.”

Spence and Custom Banjo (Banjo Whiz x Custom Bobbie) just traveled from Amarillo at the Adequan American Quarter Horse Association Select World Show, where he made the finals. “I messed up in the finals. It wasn’t his fault – it was mine,” he said.

Susan Meyer and Elanachics (Smart Chic Olena x Clarks Elan) finished second in the Prime Time Rookie with a 139.5.

Day 6

Novice Horse Non Pro L2 Affiliate Co-Champion and NRHA L2 Co-Champion

Bill Fingland and Top Shine Whiz not only tied for the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Championship, they split the NRHA class championship as well. “He was very good. Bobby Avila has done a fantastic job getting him ready for me and helping me get it together. Without him I wouldn’t be able to do it,” Fingland said.

He purchased 4-year-old Top Shine Whiz, by Topsail Whiz out of Sheza Shiney Chic, from Craig Schmersal. Schmersal had trained him through his three-year-old year. “I purchased him three to four months ago. He’s honest and easy to show. You don’t have to do a lot of tricky things to get him to do what you want him to,” he said.

Fingland noted that one of his greatest achievements of the day was to tie for the win with Jessicah Keller. “I’ve ridden ten years now and she has cleaned my clock every time!” he said with a laugh. “I’ve ridden against her, and she’s a great rider. It’s an honor for me to be co-champion with her.”

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 2 Affiliate Co-Champion and NRHA L2 Co-Champion

In 2014, Amber Schafer and Benjamin Banjo won the NRHA ancillary Novice Horse Non Pro Levels 1 and 2, but wasn’t entered in the affiliate. “I decided that this year I would, and look at the situation I’m in now,” she said during the awards ceremony.

Schafer, of Lonoke, Arkansas, has owned Benjamin Banjo, by Banjo Whiz out of Lil Ruf Jessie, for three years, and says the gelding has been the catalyst that has made her a better showman. “He’s what you call a true show horse. He’s honest every time you go in the pen,” she said.

As for her run, she was pleased, saying, “My run was good. I corrected a lot of things from Thursday that I wanted to correct. Overall he was honest and I’m proud of him. I was really happy with the run today.”

She added, “I thank Jared and Judy Matthews, my family, my friends, Sean Johnson, and the Good Lord.”

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 NRHA Champion and Level 2 Co-Champion

On Friday Jessicah Keller won the Turnabout Farm Non Pro Futurity, and then returned to the ancillary arena to claim first in the Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 and tie for first in the Level 2. “She was great today. She turned the biggest she’s ever turned for me, and she circled and changed leads great, and she stopped huge,” Keller said of her mare Shiney Duchess.

Shiney Duchess, by Shining Spark out of Starlight O Lena, is owned by Keller’s family Hilldale Farm. “I started showing her in October of last year. She’s been first or second every time I’ve shown her this year. She’s very consistent, easy to show, a huge turner and stopper and I’m lucky to have her,” she said.

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Affiliate Co-Champion

Jennifer Kandlik began her reining career three years ago at the Tulsa Reining Classic as a Green Reiner. She came back in 2014 to compete in the Rookie, but missed making the affiliate finals by a half-point, so the third time was a charm and tied for the Co-Championship on her horse Nuthin But Jack. “He did fantastic today. My coach and trainer Sterling and Heather Slep did a fantastic job of getting the both of us ready. He felt with me the entire time,” she said.

Kandlik purchased Nuthin But Jack in April, then the pair went to their first show in May. That was followed by the NRHA Derby, and Tulsa was the next big stop. “This horse works really hard and he never gives up on me. He’s got a wonderful stop and a great personality. He gives 100% each and every time,” she said.

Tulsa has been good to the Slemple crew. “So far everyone has gotten back to the affiliates that had planned to go. We love Tulsa. It’s a great place to show. It’s a good facility, a good show, with good people.”

Novice Horse Non Pro Level 1 Affiliate Co-Champion

After a pilot error in the SmartPak Non Pro Derby, Reed Kyle and Zins Smart Wrangler came back to show well in the ancillary ring. “I wound up spinning five times in the derby, so it was more my fault than his,” Kyle said. “But I came out here today and he was really good for me. I really like him. He’s just one of those nice easy horses.”

Kyle, of Whitesboro, Texas, said that the co-championship made him feel better. “We’re actually going to compete in the Non Pro affiliate class Sunday, and then we’re heading off to Vegas to show in the Derby there,” he said.

Although he wasn’t able to make it to Tulsa in 2014, Kyle noted he was glad to return. “I love this place and this town. It’s always fun when you come with your horse show family and get to see everyone and hang out,” he said.

Youth 14-18 NRHA Champion

With a score of 143.5, Emily Morris and Cross Step Wrangler won the 14-18 Youth NRHA class and a check for $83. “I had a great run today. It was by far the fastest I’ve ever run before. That’s actually something I’ve been struggling with and working on. We had an amazing stop and it was a lot of fun,” she said.

Morris has been riding Cross Step Wrangler, by Starlights Wrangler and out of Hollywood Two Step, since December. His trainer and previous owner was Wyatt Zaun. “Wyatt is a good friend of my trainer Mike Davis, and that’s how we got him,” she explained.

Morris and Cross Step Wrangler have already had a great year of showing, having won the high point championship at the NRHA Derby this spring.

Youth 13 & Under NRHA Champion

Skyler Deshotels and McKinnon Larcombe tied for the 13 & Under Championship with scores of 141. Each received a check for $70. Deshotels rode Shooting Stars, by Smart Starbuck and out of Abbie Be Nimble, while Larcombe rode This Rose Will Shine, by Twice As Shiny and out of Cross Over Rosie.

Deshotels, of Gainesville, Texas, also won the USA Reining Youth. “It was amazing. He felt really cool in the show pen,” she said.

Shooting Stars belongs to Skyler’s mother Allison Deshotels. “He’s a great horse and my mom is really nice to let me show him. He’s quite and never really spooks, and he’s really just an all around good horse,” she said. “I thank my parents and my trainer Luke Gagnon.”

Rookie Youth NRHA Champion

Katelyn Davis finished 1-2 in the Rookie Youth class. She won with Goodtime Chocoholic and finished second with Dinero Whiz. Goodtime Chocoholic is by Chocolate Chic Olena and out of Good Time Show Girl, while Dinero Whiz is by Topsail Whiz and out of Steadys Smart Gal.

Davis and Goodtime Chocoholic also finished second in the USA Reining.

Short Stirrup NRHA Champion

With a 72.5, Raeanna Thayne won the Short Stirrup class. She rode Nics Wimpy, an 8-year-old mare by Wimpys Little Step out of Nics Whiz. “She was pretty good,” the 11-year-old said of the mare, owned by her mom Robbin Thayne. “I’ve been riding her for a year or two and she’s just fun to ride.”

Thayne said she rides with Jared Leclair and “He’s a good trainer. Today he said to just go out there, have fun, and keep your hand down.”

Later in the evening, Thayne entertained the Mustang Arena crowd with her freestyle performance, choreographed to Girls Just Wanna Have Fun.

Thayne was also involved in a three-way tie for second between her, June Roberson, and Carlee McCutcheon. Thayne rode Miss Prime Time Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Miss Timed To Shine), Roberson rode Traditional Fudge, and McCutcheon rode Get Juiced (Smart Like Juice x Fancy Finnin Solano).

Raeanna Thayne

Walk/Trot Champion

Courtney Kincaid won the Walk/Trot Championship aboard Rawhides Supermodel with a 70.5. Rawhides Supermodel is by Dunit Rawhide out of Miss Catt Wood. Brylen Beicker won second with a 70 on KC Custom-chromedout, by Custom Chrome out of Sheza Beauty Too.

Youth Reining Horsemanship Champion

Kids at the event had the chance to work with two great clinicians on Saturday morning, thanks to Cinder Lakes Ranch, sponsor of all the educational opportunities at the event. NRHA Professional Matt Mills coached the younger students in the morning, while former TRC Champion

Gunny Mathison worked with the older group.

Following the clinics, the students had a special opportunity to compete in an exclusive horsemanship class. Allison Smith and Cash For Legend won the 12 & Up division, while Anais Goedertier and Shiners Little Sparkle topped the 11 & Under division.

Cheryl Cody, Show Manager of the Tulsa Reining Classic, was complimentary of the clinicians. "Both Matt and Gunny did an excellent job and took the time to work with each student. We are proud that these opportunities are available at the Tulsa Reining Classic." She added, "We also extend a special thanks to Rick Ford and Cinder Lakes Ranch for sponsoring the clinics."

Youth Leadline Class

Dr. Joe Carter and Oklahoma Equine Hospital partnered with the Tulsa Reining Classic to support the younger riders of the reining industry. Saturday night was Kids Night, and each child attending got his own cowboy hat.

Kids night started out with the Leadline Class, and reiners age 2-6 competed inside the Mustang Arena. Dr. Carter judged the event, but in the end could not decide on a winner. That meant that all the entries won first place! First place winners were William Horner, Millie Piper, Charlie Johnson, Hailey Ordner, Turner Olsen, JJ Gauthier, Lani Pool, Evan Buckley, and Joy Deary. All received commemorative teddy bears.

Day 7 - Non Pro Affiliate & NRHA Champion

After winning the Non Pro on Thursday after a run-off, Lindsey McCutcheon and her horse Mega Watt Shine returned to claim sole possession of the title in both the Affiliate and NRHA class with a 145.5.

"He was actually a little better than he was earlier in the week when I showed him. I was a little worried about him because I ran him hard back-to-back with the runoff," she said. "He actually went in sweeter and easier than he did earlier, so I was extremely happy."

Mega Watt Shine, by Marthas Mega Jac and out of Bella Della, is special to the McCutcheon family. Originally shown by Lindsey's father Scott, Lindsey eventually took over the reins. "My dad missed the finals at a couple major events by a point or a half-point. I told him if he did it again this would be my horse," she said with a laugh. "He finally let me try him and I've kept him ever since. He's been a great horse for me."

Lindsey pulled double-duty at the TRC, as she helped to man the Virtual Horse Health booth and coordinate shoots. "I have to say that Kat Paschal (her co-worker) works her butt off and she's the one who made it possible for me to be able to ride and show here. I thank her and also my parents who kept the horses ready, and Tom and Mandy McCutcheon," she said. "Everyone has done more work so I could do this. I thank them."

Int. Non Pro Affiliate Co-Champion & Prime Time Non Pro NRHA Champion

Even though she's been around reining for a long time, Tamra Kyle has never qualified for the affiliate finals in Oklahoma City. With a Co-Championship in the Intermediate Non Pro and a co-reserve title in the Non Pro, it looks like she'll get her chance to participate in 2015.

"I'm excited for the affiliate finals and am glad I get to participate. That was our goal so I'm just over the moon for that," she said.

Kyle noted that her horse, 7-year-old Gunner Git Ya Dun, showed well. "She was excellent today. I've been riding with Carol Metcalf and she had her soft and quiet," she said.

Tamra and her husband Pete purchased the mare about a year ago with plans to use her as a broodmare. "She was a client's horse for Pete and had a great career with him. We brought her to have babies but then I had to go show her again. She's a wonderful animal," she said.

Even though she's not carrying, Gunner Git Ya Dun, by Colonels Smoking Gun and out of Gotta Git Ya Dun, already has three foals on the way. "She's doing double-time," Kyle said with a laugh. "I thank Pete for taking the leap and buying her and Carol Metcalf who has done an excellent job preparing us for this."

Int. Non Pro Affiliate and NRHA Co-Champion & Ltd. Non Pro Affiliate and NRHA Champion

Kyla Myers finished reserve in the Non Pro and won the Intermediate and Limited Non Pro divisions earlier this week, but she believes that her run today with Painted Pony Whiz was better.

"Actually today was a lot better. We got a lot of kinks smoothed out. He stopped and turned around a lot better and just felt more solid," she said of the gelding, by Topsail Whiz and out of Ellys Rebel Pride.

Because Painted Pony Whiz had a busy day on Thursday, Friday was a rest day. "This morning we just made sure he was ready to go," she said. "The next stop will probably be the futurity for the finals. He'll go home with Terry Thompson while I go back to school."

Myers thanked her parents, Teresa Goforth, Terry Green, everyone in the barn, and her trainer Terry Thompson.

Prime Time Non Pro Affiliate Champion

James Knight and RHM Joker Nu Chex claimed the Prime Time Non Pro Affiliate Championship with a score of 143, besting the rest of the class by four points! The pair also finished second in the NRHA Non Pro Prime Time.

"He stopped huge and turned big and everything was really smooth," Knight said of his run on the 11-year-old stallion he calls Joker.

Knight purchased Joker, by Nu Chex To Cash and out of Giv Me More Freckles, from John and Sally Amabile earlier this spring. “He was kind of on the backburner and we were sure glad we found him. He’s been really good to me,” he said.

Although qualified, Knight’s not sure what’s next for him and his horse. “We’ll have to wait and see if we go to the big finals or not,” he said. “I haven’t been to Tulsa before this year. It was a smooth run show and I really liked it.”

Youth 14-18 Affiliate Champion

Kenleigh Wells topped the Affiliate Youth 14-18 on her horse The Ultimate Magnum with a 143.5. The Valley View, Texas, exhibitor also showed in the NRHA Youth, and finished third. “Today was a great run compared to my Limited Non Pro run,” she said. “I was happy. I actually had to push him in this run.”

Wells has owned the eleven-year-old gelding, by Magnum Chic Dream and out of Queen De La Club, since he was six. “I’ve been showing him ever since. He’s great and a very unique horse,” she said.

The 15-year-old high school sophomore graciously thanked several people. “I definitely give thanks to our glorious God. Thank you to Dean Latimer, my family, and my friends,” she said.

Youth 14-18 NRHA Co-Champion

Terri June Granger tied for the championship of the NRHA Youth 14-18 on her horse Jeans N Reeboks. The pair currently top the world standings, and the goal of winning the title was the reason they traveled over 16 hours to compete in Tulsa. Jeans N Reeboks is by Doubleknotyourreeboks and out of TNT Shelly Jean.

“It’s been a really fun show. She did great today. She circled and stopped great. We’ve been having trouble on our lead changes but we got that today,” Granger, of Dothan, Alabama, said.

It’s the first time she’s traveled to the Tulsa Reining Classic, but Granger said she was impressed. “I loved it and thought it was a great show. Everyone was super nice,” she said.

Youth 14-18 NRHA Co-Champion

Emily Morris and Cross Step Wrangler (Starlights Wrangler x Hollywood Two Step) tied with Granger in the NRHA division.

Youth 13 & Under Affiliate Champion and NRHA Co-Champion

Dani Latimer piloted Starbucks Shadow to a 142.5, securing the Youth 13 & Under Affiliate Championship and tying for first in the NRHA Youth. “He was really good. He ran his circles hard, he turned and stopped well, so I was really happy with him,” she said.

Latimer has ridden the ten-year-old, by Smart Starbuck and out of Dun Its Shadow, since he was five years old. “He’s just an awesome horse. He’s always consistent and does what I ask of him,” she said. “He’s like a family member and I just love him.”

She added, “I thank the Dean Latimer crew and everyone who supports me.”

Youth 13 & Under NRHA Co-Champion

Emma Filiatreau tied with Latimer for the Championship of the NRHA 13 & Under. Currently in the running for a world title, her score of 142.5 on Optimus Prime helped. “We have been everywhere showing, so it was good we did well today,” she said. “He showed really well.”

Filiatreau has been riding Optimus Prime since the 2014 NRHA Derby, and the gelding, by Nic It In The Bud and out of Wind Her Up Chic, came from Todd Bergen.

“I thank my trainers Marco Formentin and Chris Ballard,” the ten-year-old said.

Rookie Youth Champion

With a score of 143, Katelyn Davis finished second in the Youth 14-18 Affiliate and won the Rookie Youth Championship. Davis was riding her horse Goodtime Chocoholic.

The 17-year-old high school senior has been riding the gelding, by Chocolate Chic Olena and out of Good Time Showgirl, since this year’s NRHA Derby. Tulsa marked the pair’s third show together. “He’s a great horse for her. He’s real steady and she’s enjoying him,” her parents said after the class.

Katelyn added, “Thank you to Trey Poole, my trainer. I’m really happy to ride with him and I’m thankful for the opportunity.”

Annabeth Payne and Chexamillion (Nu Chex To Cash x Snip O Gun), finished second in the Rookie Youth with a 142.

Short Stirrup Co-Champions

There was a four-way tie for the Championship of both the Short Stirrup Affiliate Regionals and the Short Stirrup NRHA. June Roberson, Alli Cadwallader, and Raeanna Thayne (who tied with two horses), all piloted their horses to a score of 144.

Thayne, who won the Short Stirrup the following day on Nics Wimpy, won the high-point buckle sponsored by ALPHA Ranch. Thayne also finished first with Miss Prime Time Whiz.

“She’s a lot better than she was the other day. She was smoother and her head was down more,” Thayne said of Nics Wimpy. “Thank you to Jared Leclair for helping me.”

Both Nics Wimpy (Wimpys Little Step x Nics Whiz) and her other entry Miss Prime Time Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Miss Timed To Shine) are owned by Raeanna’s parents Robert and Robbin Thayne.

June Roberson was part of a three-way tie for second in yesterday’s Short Stirrup class with her horse Traditional Fudge. She returned to the Super Duty Arena and marked higher scores from the judges.

Traditional Fudge, by Steady Tradition out of Red Hot Fudge, is owned by June’s father JD Roberson. “His name is Fudgy. I’ve been riding him about two years,” she said. “I like him because he’s really sweet and he usually listens to me. He was really good today and yesterday except for the rundowns.”

Alli Cadwallader and Chex This Melody Out improved on their run Saturday. “He did really good today. I had to school him a lot yesterday on standing in the middle, and he was much better today,” she said.

Chex This Melody Out is by Chex That Out out of Tularosa Melody. “I call him Macho. He’s big and black with a really big tail, and he doesn’t really have a forelock at all.” She added, “And he’s really fun to ride and he’s a great stopper.”

NRHA High-Point Buckles

Thanks to the generosity of several reining enthusiasts, several ancillary exhibitors at the event were presented with buckles for being the high-point Champion in certain classes.

Alan and Shawn Stratman sponsored the NRHA Rookie High-Point buckles. Jennifer Greenleaf won the buckles for the Rookie Level 1 and 2 with Dun Git A Nicadual. Todd Holbrook and A Juicy Chex won the Prime Time Rookie buckle, while Kathy Loudamy and Miss Winnie claimed the Prime Time Rookie Reserve buckle.

Steve and Rita Harris sponsored the high point buckles for the Youth 14-18 and Youth 13 & Under. Emily Morris and Cross Step Wrangler won the elder division, and McKinnon Larcomb and This Rose Will Shine claimed the buckle for the 13 & Under.

Raeanna Thayne and Nics Wimpy won the Short Stirrup buckle, sponsored by ALPHA Ranch, and Courtney Kincaid and Rawhides Rupermodel won the Walk-Trot buckle from JD Roberson.

APHA High Point Buckles

Riders who competed with APHA registered horses had the chance to win Gist Silversmiths buckles.

Blake Felts and Gunner Slide won the Youth High Point Paint buckle. Gunner Slide is by Colonels Smoking Gun out of GS Anniegityergun).

Youth Team Tournament

The Youth Team Tournament awards were presented, and the team of Reece Villines, Blair Thompson, Emma Filiatreau, and Darby Gardner won first place. The second place team was Analise Granger, Allen Copeland, Kenleigh Wells, and Ethan Villines.

AMERICANA 2015: Cody Sapergia and Nu Chexomatic claim Open Bronze Trophy

The World Cup Reining Bronze Trophy Open Final was one of the most fascinating in the history of the Americana – and one of the most emotional ones as well. This was world class reining, and it ended with the retirement of one of the best reining horses of the recent years - Great Sun Burst.

Sixteen top horses and riders had made it into the final with NRHA Million Dollar Rider Bernard Fonck aboard What A Wave (Tidal Wave Jack x What A Sunrise) leading after the Go round and with Sail On Top Whizard (Whizard Jac x Miss N Sis) following close behind on second place. NRHA Million Dollar Rider Cody Sapergia aboard Nu Chexomatic (Nu Chex To Cash x Tejons Texie Lena) and Gotta Gold Chain (Jacs Electric Spark x Snip O Chex) placed third and fourth in the go round.

As the fifth rider, Cody Sapergia rode Gotta Gold Chain for Jacpoint Quarter Horses to a 224 earning plus points in every maneuver and especially in the right turns and stops. In spite of their great runs, none of the following riders could come close – not even Bernard Fonck aboard Sail On Top Whizard, one of the favourites. The stallion owned by Danny Cerato started with great left turns left, but had a ½ penalty with each judge on the right turns resulting in a total of 220.

Gennaro Lendi aboard Marilyn Monwhoa (owner Rabboni Vittorno), NRHA World Champion Open Ann Fonck aboard Ebony Spook (owner Rosanne Sternberg) and Cira Beck aboard Whizasunnysailor BB (owner Rüdiger Diedenhofen) presented three fine, risky runs earning a 222 each (resp. 222.5 for Ann Fonck).

Then came Cody Sapergia once more – this time aboard Nu Chexomatic. The 8-year-old palomino gelding earned plus points in each manoeuvre and +1 for the right turns by each of the judges. A run full of style and finesse ended with three spectacular stops which was a total of 227. This was to be highscore, the Championship, Trophy and $12,000 prize money.

This could not be topped – neither by NRHA Million Dollar Rider Rudi Kronsteiner and Dr Lee Hook (owner Glis Ranch) who scored a 223.5, nor by Bernard Fonck aboard What A Wave owned by Steve and Gina Vannietvelt who risked everything, had a beautiful run but ended with a 225.5.

So, this was the Bronze Trophy Open Championship for Cody Sapergia and Nu Chexomatic, with Bernard Fonck and What A Wave placing second and Cody Sapergia and Gotta Gold Chain placing third.

“I am very happy with our two horses,” said Cody. “They were great at home and even better here in the show arena. Nu Chexomatic and Gotta Gold Chain are very special horses both. Nu Chexomatic was not even impressed by the crowd. We were really lucky and I am grateful for this chance!”

Tina Kunstner-Mantl and her husband Klaus bought Nu Chexomatic as a 4-year-old. Tina became NRHA European Futurity Reserve Champion Non Pro with the gelding and won the IRHA Derby with him twice. With Cody Sapergia, the gelding won the 23 Classic, the SVAG CS Classic Open and the NRHA Bronze Trophy Open at the NRHA European Championship and the Italian Futurity and were Reserve Bronze Trophy Champion at the Belgian and the NRHA Breeders Futurity. They finished 2013 as NRHA Open World Champion.

After the Bronze Trophy, Manuel Bonzano’s great stallion Great Sun Burst retired from the arena in front of 4,800 spectators, The four times NRHA World Champion was Bernard Fonck’s third horse in the final. The impressing son of Great Resolve scored a 219.5. After his final ride, Bernard took off the stallion’s saddle and left the arena for the last time with him.

Manuel Bonzano Claims Non Pro Bronze Trophy

The finals of the $ 15K-added World Cup NRHA Bronze Trophy Non Pro was the last class of 2015 Americana. In a field of 14, past NRHA World Champion Non Pro Manuel Bonzano claimed the Trophy and his share of prize money aboard his High Point Reiner (Sailin Ruf x Scarlet High Listo). The Italian was the first to go and earned a 218.5 (plus points especially in the first turns and first stop), which was to be high score. The 6-year-old stallion High Point Reiner was the Austrian RHA Futurity Champion Non Pro with Bonzano in the saddle and also won the Non Pro Trophy at the NRHA European Futurity 2015. His NRHA lifetime earnings exceed $35,000.

Bonzano, who stallion Great Sun Burst officially retired from the show arena after the Americana Open Bronze Trophy Final, also rode his second horse Time To Mark Big (Big Chex To Cash x Shes Markin Time) to second place honours scoring a 215.5. Piet Mestdagh and Reining Whiz followed close behind on third place (215). Tina Kunstner-Mantl and her Nu Chexomatic who had been leading after the go round, placed fourth. The two had started out fine with excellent spins, but then had penalties on the left circles which was a 213.5 altogether.

Nothing Compares to Americana!

Every two years in September, the Augsburg fairground hosts Europe’s premier western event: the Americana – and this year, the unique combination of fair, top sport and entertainment broke all records. 52,400 visitors came to see a western event which was bigger and better in a lot of ways. 360 exhibitors showed and that was 78 more than two years before. But there were not only more exhibitors, but also venues. For the first time, there was a special health area with 25 exhibitors. Then there was a veterinary convention, the renowned Americana Forum, a farriers’ area, the Parelli-Ring and a new riding pen. 16 associations presented themselves, and there was a special kids’ section. The evening shows with 4,800 seats each were booked out for weeks before the event. “All the area profits from Americana,” said the organizer. The hotel rooms had been booked for almost half a year. The average visitor came from 200 km away.

A proven Team: All Americana Staff

A lot of the members of the Americana staff have been part of this event for 20 years now, and a lot of the fun for participants and visitors is due to these people. A big thank you to all the members of the staff.

SCOTTSDALE WESTERN WORLD DEBUTS AS NAMING SPONSOR OF SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION NON PRO FUTURITY

The Southwest Reining Horse Association welcomes an important new supporter in 2015 as Scottsdale Western World comes on board as naming sponsor of the Non Pro Futurity. The Scottsdale Western World Non Pro Futurity will be a highlight of the 31-year-old Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity and Show, set for October 20-25.

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Futurity showcases some of the country's best 3-year-old reining horses and the Non Pro division, like the Open, is considered an important credential for a horse or rider's record. "The Non Pros are the life of reining," noted Show Manager Cheryl Cody, who continued. "They provide intense competition and they also support our trainers by keeping horses in training year-round. We're thrilled to welcome Scottsdale Western World on board as the sponsor of this division of the futurity and we know that this company certainly recognizes the importance and contribution of this group of National Reining Horse Association members."

Michael Miola, of Silver Spurs Equine Company said, "Scottsdale Western World, a Silver Spurs Equine company, is proud to expand its support of the reining industry and in particular our Non Pro riders by sponsoring the Southwest Reining Horse Association Non Pro Futurity. Non Pro's are the backbone of the NRHA and we will do whatever we can to support and encourage them to compete."

Located at the corner of Alma School Parkway and Dynamite Road in Scottsdale, Arizona, Scottsdale Western World aims to provide the finest saddles and tack in the western industry. The company was begun in August 2014, with the mission of providing fine saddles and tack at reasonable prices – a goal similar to that of its parent company, Silver Spurs Equine which is to provide the finest breeding stallions at reasonable prices.

According to Miola, Scottsdale Western World was the brainchild of David Solum. His vision was to combine the talents of renowned saddle maker Andy Maschke, owner of AM Saddlery whose factory is just outside of Ft. Worth Texas, with the marketing of Silver Spurs Equine. In addition to the AM Superior Saddle, Andy designed a complete new line of saddles branded as "Silver Spurs Saddles by AM." What is completely unique about this line is that the exact saddle is built with 4 different price points.

The basic model is the Rio Verde, next level up is the Scottsdale Performance Saddle, then the AM Superior and finally the top of the line Pinnacle. No matter which tree is selected, if you purchase a Rio Verde or a Pinnacle the saddle will ride exactly the same! The only difference is the extras like tooling and silver.

These saddles have been so well received that Shawn Florida, Andrea Fappani, Casey Deary, Todd Sommers and Jason Vanlandingham have exclusively endorsed them. In addition to saddles Scottsdale Western World offers a complete selection of Yucca Flats Blankets, Tom Balding and Kerry Kelly bits and Spurs, Classic Equine products and much more.

For information on Scottsdale Western World, visit the website at www.swwwus.com.

The Southwest Reining Horse Association is one of the National Reining Horse Association's largest and most successful affiliate groups, and it celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2014. Throughout its history, the association has worked to provide benefits for members, while promoting reining horses and the reining horse industry.

Often tagged “Where the Best Go First,” the SWRHA Futurity is a must-attend event for futurity horses. For most, it is the final stop before the National Reining Horse Association Futurity in Oklahoma City. Now with this expanded schedule, it provides that same advantage for the horses that are shown in ancillary classes. For information on the Southwest Reining Horse Association and its events, visit www.swrha.com.

Reflections with Ruben van Dorp

“For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6

Jesus, the king of kings, the lord of lords, the everlasting Father and the prince of peace; left all His glory behind to be our humble servant, our humble savior. He washed the disciples feet at the last supper and broke bread with those that left Him, betrayed and denied Him. He came to serve all of us, no exceptions. Thinking about this I can't be but a very humbled sinner adoring my humble, yet glorious savior. I have seen glimpses of my mess through His eyes and am in awe that He can love me the way I am; and loves me too much to leave me where I am today.

Ruben van Dorp grew up in The Netherlands and began training horses over 22 years ago. His equine experience in many different breeds and disciplines led to nine European championships. After relocating to the United States in 2002, he started Vandorp Inc., DBA Vandorp Reining Horses. With his success in the United States, Ruben's current lifetime National Reining Horse Association earnings are over $625,000. In 2003, Ruben married the love of his life, Melissa. They currently reside in Cross Roads, Texas with their beautiful children, Skylar and Peyton. Ruben and his family are very involved in their church, COC Metro, where he and his wife began and lead the PowerPack Ministry. This program currently feeds over 275 elementary school kids per month who are in need of food on the weekends. Ruben has a passion to share the knowledge of Jesus' saving grace and see lives changed. He was inspired by a friend to write and share a daily devotional via text messaging which he has continued daily for the past two years. If you would like to be added to the text message list, text him at 214-243-0447.

2015 AUSTRIAN REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY - ONE OF THE TOP 3 FUTURITIES IN EUROPE!

At the end of August, the $ 80,000-added Austrian RHA Futurity in Wiener Neustadt, Austria, once more opened the Futurity Season in Europe. Horses and rider from Italy, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Sweden, Denmark, Hungary, Poland, The Czech Republic, Slovenia and Slovakia met at the beautiful facility of Helmut Schultz for five days of excellent reining shows, both in the Futurity and the Ancillary classes.

Cody Sapergia claims ARHA Futurity L4 Open Championship

Scoring a 218.5, NRHA Million Dollar Rider and past NRHA World Champion Open Cody Sapergia claimed the Austrian RHA Futurity Championship Open L4 3-year-old horses aboard Whiz Electric Spark (Jacs Electric Spark x Remmicks Whiz), a stallion bred by Matthias Koch and owned by Franz Josef Braidt. Braidt was also the owner of the Co-Reserve Champion Desire Big Chex (Big Chex To Cash x Topsails Desire) with whom Cody scored a 217.5.

The AQHA/APHA stallion bred by Carlo Orsi, had been leading after the go round.

“Whiz Electric Spark was great today – especially in the circles and the last two stops,” said Cody who won the ARHA Futurity in 2013. “I’ve had him since October, and this was our first real show. I’m really happy with him – as I am with Desire Big Chex. They are great, athletic horses!”

Manuel Cortesi and PC Magnum Step Dream (Magnum Chic Dream x Wimpys Precious Step) scored a 217.5 as well earning the Reserve Championship L4 as well as the Futurity Championship L3 errang. Cortesi was 2011 FEI European Champion Young Riders, ARHA Futurity Champion Non Pro and NRHA European Derby Champion Non Pro. Reserve Champion Level 3 was Fabio Poleisel aboard Venus Jabalina Star (RS Little Red Jaba x Little Jac), owned by Valentino Pettarini – their score: 216.

In the Open Futurity Final Level 2 and 1, 3-year-old horses, all three first places went to Italy. The winner both in Level 2 and Level 1 was Walter Martini aboard his Dreamin With Dot. The two had a great run scoring a 217.5. Dreamin With Dot is an AQHA stallion by Magnum With A Dream out of Dots Smartest Chic, who was bred by Maud Allison Deshtels in Texas. Walter Martini operates Martini Reining Horses in Campiagio / Milano. He was Int. Open Champion Lombardia Reining.

In Level 2, Massimiliano Ruggeri aboard Massimo Rudari's Topgun (Gunner x Starmax RM) became Reserve Champion scoring a 213.5. Massimo Ruggeri is a multiple Italian Futurity and Derby Finalist. Two horses tied for third place in level 2 which was also the Reserve Championship in Level 1, both ridden by Massimo Bellani: the AQHA gelding Rockin Roll Star (Lenas Starfish x Jane Dual) owned by Ongaresca Allevamento and the stallion Valentine Trip (Taris Valentine x Dark Blue River) owned by Matteo Gottardo. Both scored a 212.5. Aboard Valentine Trip, Bellani had been leading after the Go round Level 1.

With a superb run, Marina Becker and her MJ Heavens Nite (Gunnars Special Nite x Gallo Del Blanco) claimed the Austrian RHA Futurity Championship Non Open Level 4 scoring a 216. The two had already taken the lead in the go round (together with Carlo Ambrosini and Saturday Night BH). MJ Heavens Nite is a sorrel AQHA stallion bred by Julia Scharf. NRHA European Futurity Champion Non Pro Level 4 Marina Becker showed him at the 2015 NRHA Breeders Derby winning the SBHR Non Pro 3-year-old horses.

The Reserve Champion title Level 4 went to Francesca Bosoni aboard SH Topsail Badger (Que Peseta x White Breeze), which was also the Futurity Championship Level

3 (211.5). SH Topsail Badger is an AQHA gelding bred by Staffoli Horses SCN. Francesca Bosoni was 8th at the 2014 NRHA Breeders Futurity Non Pro and 6th in Ltd. Non Pro as well as 8th in the IRHA Futurity Non Pro L1. Davide Bonavita and PC Captain Win (AB Captain Badger x Sheza Will Win) became Reserve Champion Level 3 and placed third in Level 4 scoring a 211. The 3-year-old stallion was bred by Azienda Agricola Cortesi Piero. Davide Bonavita is a multiple IRHA Futurity Finalist and had been third in the go round with PC Captain Win.

The Level 1 Non Pro Futurity Final ended with a three way tie on first place: Carlo Ambrosini aboard Turbo Saturday Night (Saturdaynight Custom x ARC Hollywood Storm), Andrea Pedrotti aboard Saturdaynight Oak (Saturdaynight Custom x Tuck Oak Enterprise) and Elena Gunter about Chic it Out (Chic Magnetic x Baby Pride Out) had earned a 210 each. The following run off ended in a tie again between Carlo Ambrosini, who had two horses in the final, and Andrea Pedrotti. Both scored a 212 and became Co-Champions. Elena Gunter her stallion bred by Vincenzo Golzini placed third scoring a 207.5. Thus two stallions bred and owned by Ambrosini Quarter Horses shared the Futurity Champion title Level 1 Non Pro. Carlo Ambrosini, who had been leading after the go round aboard Saturday Night BH, was 2014 IRHA Maturity Res. Champion Non Pro L2 and L1, 7th at the Italian Derby in Non Pro L2 and claimed team gold at the 2013 FEI European Championship Juniors in Manerbio. Only a few weeks ago, Andrea Pedrotti claimed team gold and individual silver at the FEI European Championship Young Riders.

SOUTHWEST REINING HORSE ASSOCIATION FUTURITY & SHOW ADDS SECOND SLATE OF NRHA CLASSES

The Southwest Reining Horse Association Board of Directors has focused on attracting new members and providing quality show opportunities. A new step in that direction comes in 2015 with the addition of a second slate of NRHA classes to its keynote annual event, the SWRHA Futurity and Show, set for October 20-25.

According to association management, this change is in response to feedback from the reining community. According to association officials, with the cost of hauling and showing, there have been requests from people who would like the opportunity to show twice in one trip, and this new venue is in response to that.

With the addition of a second slate of ancillary classes, the show will utilize a second arena. There will be NO change to the available time for futurity horses in our main coliseum. Slate one will also show as usual in the main arena and our new slate two classes will be held in the ancillary arena."

There's more news in the form of circuit hi point awards! Class winners will receive custom Martin Saddlery headstalls and Circuit winners will receive trophy buckles!

For information on the Southwest Reining Horse Association and its events, visit www.swrha.com.

AUSTRIAN RHA FUTURITY CHAMPIONS

Open L4: Grischa Ludwig - Dennis Schulz claims L3 and L2 Championship

The 2015 AustrianRHA Futurity ended with an unbelievable final: the last rider, Grischa Ludwig and the 4-year-old Paint stallion Doctors Diamond (Jazalena Diamond x Nu Chex Rose) scored a 223 for owner Dr. Paul Van Hooft claiming the Futurity Championship Open Level 4. For Grischa Ludwig, it was another great success in an already fantastic season which included the FEI European Reserve Championship (both individual and team) only one week before this show. "I got Doctors Diamond about a year ago," Grischa said. "This was our very first show. He is still green, and we had quite some penalties in the go round, but we still got a 217, which shows the great potential of this horse I would never have expected to have a chance of winning today. I simply wanted to have a smooth, flawless ride with him. And then this. Doctors Diamond is one of those horses you can simply show through a pattern without big fuss, and he still looks great to the judges." Dominik Reminder and his Paint mare La Marka de Gunner (Colonels Smokin Gun x Smokin Marquita) became Reserve Champion for owner Luga Quarter Horses scoring a 221. With this mare, past NRHA World Open Res. Champion Reminder was 6th at the NRHA Breeders Futurity SBH Open 2014.

The Level 3 Open final ended with another success for Dennis Schulz and Whiz Ice (Laredo Whiz x Authentic Smarima). The stallion bred by Helmut Schulz and owned by Katharina Fahrner had already won the Level 2 Open Futurity and now claimed the Level 3 as well scoring a 217.5. In 2014, Dennis Schulz and Whiz Ice were Austrian-QHA Futurity Champion.

The Reserve Championship was earned by Gerald Freitag aboard Gimme Spangled Stars (Star Spangled Whiz x Shawnee Buena Chex) who scored a 216.5 for owner and breeder Judith Ernst.

Two riders tied for the Co-Reserve Championship Level 2 scoring a 214.5 each: Tobias Voglberger aboard I Am A Ruf Boy (Sailin Ruf x Cody Bo Sun), Gerald Freitag aboard Gimme Spangled Stars (Star Spangled Whiz x Shawnee Buena Chex) and Michael Saupé aboard Birgit Meier's No More Guns (I Am Shotgunner x Lil More Rest). This also meant the Level 1 Futurity Championship for Tobias Voglberger and I Am A Ruf Boy. Reserve Champion was Peter Pichler aboard Skeet Rock (Skeets Dun x Barbie Nic Chex).

Andrea Iannetta becomes Non Pro L4 Champion, Kelly Deelen wins L3

Scoring a 216.5, last year's Futurity Champion Non Pro claimed the title again: 22-year-old Andrea Iannetta aboard his ER Baby Jane Surprise (One Gun x Surprise Moonlite). The two won the AustrianRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 4, 4-year-old horses. Iannetta was 2006 IRHA Derby Non-Pro & Limited Non-Pro 5th, 4th at the IRHA Futurity Non Pro 2008 and earned gold at the 2009 FEI European Championship Juniors and Silver at the 2011 FEI EC Young Riders. In 2014 he also won the IRHA Futurity Non Pro L4 and 3. His Paint mare ER Baby Jane Surprise was bred by Elisabetta Raviola.

Dutch Kelly Deelen became L4 Reserve Champion which was also the L3 Futurity Champion title aboard her KD Gotasparkingwhiz (Walla Walla Whiz x Parkin Crome), scoring a 215.5. With her stallion, Kelly was 2014 Austrian-RHA Futurity Reserve Champion Non Pro.

Two riders tied for the L3 Reserve Championship: Gabriele Carrarini with her mare CG Smart First Lady (ARC Surprising Smart x Love County) and Emma Villa aboard her Dual Spirit (Dualin For Me x RDH Spirit Of Dun It). Both scored a 214. CG Smart First Lady and Gabriele Carrarini were 2014 third at the AustrianRHA Futurity Non Pro and 6th at the IRHA Futurity Non Pro Level 4. Emma

Grischa Ludwig & Doctos Diamond

Dennis Schulz & Whiz Ice

Andrea Ianetta & ER Baby Jane Surprise

Marcus Schopfer & Jokin Whiz

Kelly Deelen & KD Gotasparkingwhiz

Ann-Kathrin Wendel & Starlight Mercedes

Villa and her mare were NRHA European Futurity Non Pro Champion Level 1.

The Level 1 Non Pro Futurity final was won by Ann-Kathrin Wendel aboard her Starlight Mercedes. The two had been on third place after the go round and had another great run in the final scoring a 213.5. Starlight Mercedes is by Cromed Out Mercedes out of Achy Braky Me and was bred by Bob Loomis. With Dominik Reminder in the saddle, the stallion was 2014 NRHA Breeders Futurity Ltd. Open Reserve Champion. Only a few weeks ago, Ann-Kathrin Wendel and her horse won the Intermediate Non Pro and Level 1 NP Stakes Champion at the High Class Reining.

The leader of the go round, Shirley Schalcher from Switzerland and her Big And Sweet BB (Big Chex To Cash x Sweet Lil Diamond BB) claimed the Reserve Championship scoring a 212.5. With this stallion, she was IRHA Futurity Non Pro Reserve Champion L1 and NRHA European Futurity Finalist.

Markus Schöpfer claims Bronze Trophy Open

With a 224.5, Markus Schopfer and his Jokin Whiz (Who Whiz It x Jokin Peppy) dominated the Open Bronze Trophy, setting highscore for the AustrianRHA Futurity 2015.

The Bronze Trophy was another big success in an already great show season. Schopfer and his 7-year-old AQHA stallion were Co-Champion Open and Int. Open at the Garden of England Show in Bodiam and won the SVAG CS Classic Intermediate Open in Switzerland – both times earning top scores.

Dennis Schulz rode Laredo Whiz to the Reserve Championship for owner Saad El Din Hadj-Abdou scoring a 220.5. NRHA Million Dollar Rider Cody Sapergia and Melanie Thonnes' Color My Gun placed third scoring a 219. 11-year-old Laredo Whiz (Topsail Whiz x Genuine Starbright) proved his class here once more. The stallion was among the 2009 NRHA top 10 of the word and is a multiple Bronze Trophy Champion.

Karol Bryla & A Diamond Enterprise Claim Non Pro

The Non Pro Bronze Trophy was won by Karol Bryla and A Diamond Enterprise, who scored an excellent 217. It was already their third success here at this Futurity after winning the Intermediate Open and Limited Open. Also it was another victory in an already high season which included the Int. Non Pro Championship at the NRHA Happy Hour III and the Limited Open at the High Class Reining. Clemens Hefel and his 5-year-old Tari Electric Spark (Jacs Electric Spark x Tari Badgekin) became Reserve Champion scoring a 214.

Karol Bryla & A Diamond Enterprise

Thus ended a spectacular Austrian RHA Futurity, which was commented by Futurity Champion Grischa Ludwig, “Here in Wiener Neustadt, there is always a very high level of sport. In fact, the Austrian RHA Futurity is one of Europe’s top 3 events besides the Italian Futurity and the Breeders Futurity!”

CARDINAL REINING HORSES AND LIFELINE® TEAM TO SPONSOR SWRHA OPEN FUTURITY

Cardinal Reining Horses and LIFELINE® have teamed up to sponsor the Southwest Reining Horse Association Open Futurity in 2015. The Cardinal Reining Horses LIFELINE® Open Futurity will be the headline event at the SWRHA Futurity and Show, set for October 20-25.

“We are thrilled to have two such prominent entities join forces to sponsor the Open Futurity,” said SWRHA President Kathy McCutcheon. “Cardinal Reining Horses has made an impact on the industry in recent years and LIFELINE® is a company committed to helping horses thrive. It’s great to have them as part of our event.”

Monte Hamilton, Equine Sales Manager for LIFELINE®, said. “We are honored to partner with the SWRHA as a sponsor for the Futurity show. For more than 30 years APC Inc. has been spearheading discoveries that have impacted animal health and performance worldwide. Today, our LIFELINE® brand serum-based proteins play a powerful role in helping animals feel and perform their best. We are excited to share the science behind our Equine performance products with the SWRHA and all of its members! Our mission is to help animals THRIVE!”

Cardinal Reining Horses is owned by Joao Marcos Aruda Pires. In 2013 he purchased a premier reining horse facility in Aubrey, Texas. John Marcos, as he is known in the United States, renamed the facility Cardinal Reining Horses and in recent years Marcos and Cardinal Reining Horses have come to represent world class reining around the globe. John Marcos is a veteran horseman who also owns Cardinal Training Center—a 300 acre elite racing horse facility in Ocala, Florida.

Cardinal Reining Horses stands two special stallions - AQHA and NRHA World Champion Star Spangled Whiz LTE: $175,000+ (Topsail Whiz x Sheza Shady Slider) owned by Bevilacqua Quarter Horses, Italy, and CFR Centenario Wimpy LTE: $175,000+ (Wimpys Little Step x Miss Hollywood Whiz) owned by Slide or Die LLC, Italy. Marcos worked with Million Dollar rider Tom McCutcheon to purchase an extraordinary set of broodmares and their foals are now becoming the future of Cardinal Reining Horses.

Cardinal Reining Horses serves as home base for several leading trainers. Brazilian native and NRHA Professional Franco Bertolani is head trainer for Cardinal Reining Horses, along with his wife, Italian Giorgia Codeluppi. Five trainers work independently out of Cardinal Ranch, including NRHA Million Dollar Rider Brian Bell, NRHA Open World Champion Ann Salmon-Anderman, NRBC Open L3 Champion Ruben Vandorp, Monte Anderman and NRBC Open Finalist Billy Williams.

PERFORMANCE SUPPLEMENTS

For information on Cardinal Reining Horses, visit the website at www.CardinalReiningHorses.com.

LIFELINE® helps performance horses cope with and recover from normal stress whether from training, competition or trailering. Stress can cause inflammation which can manifest in many ways from gut upset to sore joints and muscles. LIFELINE® works because of BioThrive®, the serum-based active ingredient that is proven to help achieve optimal performance in horses. LIFELINE® may help reduce inflammation associated with stress and normal daily exercise. Results from studies with horses have shown that BioThrive®, the active ingredient in LIFELINE® is proven to improve stride length and range of motion by easing occasional soreness from normal exercise.

LIFELINE® may also offset respiratory and breathing issues and relieve occasional gastric distress related to stress and exercise.
